

Michele Gazzola • Torsten Templin •
Bengt-Arne Wickström
Editors

Language Policy and Linguistic Justice

Economic, Philosophical and Sociolinguistic
Approaches

Contents

Part I Introduction and Overview of Literature

- An Economics Approach to Language Policy and Linguistic Justice 3
Bengt-Arne Wickström, Torsten Templin, and Michele Gazzola
- Linguistic Justice: An Interdisciplinary Overview of the Literature..... 65
Javier Alcalde

Part II Political and Philosophical Perspectives on Linguistic Justice

- Justice in the Linguistic Environment: Narrow or Wide? 153
Andrew Shorten
- Toward an Adaptive Approach to Linguistic Justice: Three Paradoxes ... 173
Yael Peled
- Language Proficiency and Migration: An Argument Against Testing 189
Astrid von Busekist and Benjamin Boudou
- The Myth of English as a Common Language in the European Union (EU) and Some of Its Political Consequences 209
Jean-Claude Barbier

Part III Economic Approaches to Language Policy and Linguistic Justice

- Linguistic Justice in a Federal Setting: The Case of Canadian Provinces 233
François Vaillancourt
- Language Policy and Social Segmentation: Evidence from Catalonia 259
Ramon Caminal and Antonio Di Paolo

Languages, Human Capital, and Well-Being in Sub-Saharan Africa	287
Katalin Buzási and Péter Földvári
Linguistic Disenfranchisement and Labour Mobility in Europe	313
Till Burckhardt
Choosing Working Languages in a Multilingual Organization: A Statistical Analysis with a Particular View on the European Union	337
Dietrich Voslamber
 Part IV Sociolinguistic Views and Applications
The Assessment of Sociolinguistic Justice: Parameters and Models of Analysis	363
Gabriele Iannàccaro, Federico Gobbo, and Vittorio Dell'Aquila
Regulatory Environment, Linguistic Inequalities, and New Opportunities for Hungarian Minority Interest Representation in Romania	393
Zsombor Csata and László Marác
The Economic Value of Mastering Languages: The Case of Ethnically Mixed Areas in Slovenia	431
David Limon, Mojca Medvešek, and Sonja Novak Lukanovič
Language and Translation Policies in Context of Urban Super-Diversity	455
Reine Meylaerts
Language Policies for Migrants in Italy: The Tension Between Democracy, Decision-Making, and Linguistic Diversity	477
Sabrina Machetti, Monica Barni, and Carla Bagna
Esperanto and Linguistic Justice: An Empirical Response to Sceptics	499
Cyril Brosch and Sabine Fiedler
Index	537