

Corporate Social Responsibility

Perspectives for Sustainable Corporate Governance

Catherine Malecki

Professor of Private Law and Member of the Laboratoire Interdisciplinaire de Recherche en Innovations Sociétales, University Rennes 2, Associate Member of the Institut Droit Ethique Patrimoine, University Paris-Saclay, France, and External Member of the Institute of Commercial and Corporate Law, Durham Law School, Durham University, UK

 Edward Elgar
PUBLISHING

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

Foreword	vii
List of abbreviations	x
General introduction	1
PART 1 THE ISSUES OF NON-FINANCIAL REPORTING
1 Review of questions	83
2 Developments in non-financial reporting	95
3 Non-financial information requirements	147
4 A sustainable accounting system	190
PART 2 BEHAVIOURS AND SANCTIONS
5 Review of questions	205
A. BEHAVIOURS
6 Corporate administration and management	219
7 What guides or labels for socially responsible behaviour?	255
8 Dialogue with stakeholders	277
9 Corporate transactions	307
10 What other paths or avenues for investigation exist?	317
B. WHAT SANCTIONS? GENERAL PRESENTATION
11 Diversity of traditional sanctions	327
12 Reputation	339
13 A special sanction: environmental liability in groups of companies	373
PART 3 SUSTAINABLE FINANCE, RESPONSIBLE INVESTORS
14 Review of questions	387

15	General overview of socially responsible investment	395
16	Towards responsible investors	426
17	Sustainable finance projects	442
	Conclusion	446
	Index	453