

Contents

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	viii
LIST OF TABLES	xiii
INTRODUCTION— Elizabeth Hill Boone	1
CURRICULUM VITAE OF MARY ELIZABETH SMITH	6
Part One: Aztec Themes
1. IN TLAMATINIME: THE WISE MEN AND WOMEN OF AZTEC MEXICO—Elizabeth Hill Boone	9
Owners of Books	10
Quetzalcoatl and Toltecayotl	11
Historians, Orators, and Poets	13
Calendar Priests, Astronomers, and Diviners	13
Physicians, Midwives, and Sorcerers	15
Old and Esteemed	19
Noble Tlamatinime	19
Female Sages	20
The Tlamatinime	21
2. FEMALE DEITIES OF DIVINATION IN THE AZTEC TONALAMATL—Eloise Quiñones Keber	27
Aztecs (Mexico) and Divination	27
Female Deities and the Tonalamatl	29
Trecena 1	30
Trecena 5	31
Trecena 8	33
Trecena 13	34
Trecena 15	36
Trecena 18	37
Trecena 19	38
Conclusion	39
3. THE BODIES OF THE GODS: AS SEEN IN CULT IMAGES MADE OF WOOD IN THE PICTORIAL CODICES— Doris Heyden	43
Huitzilopochtli, "Hummingbird on the Left"	44
Tezcatlipoca, "Mirror That Smokes"	45
Quetzalcoatl, "Feathered Serpent" or "Precious Serpent"; Cihuacoatl, "Serpent Woman"; Maya-heul, "Deified Agave, the Century Plant"	46
Mixcoatl-Camaxtli, "Cloud Serpent"	47
Tlaloc and Chalchiuhtlicue	47
Iztaccihuatl, "White Woman"	49
Chicomecoatl, "Seven Serpent"	49
Xochiquetzal, "Precious Flower"	50
Toci, "Our Grandmother"	50
Ocotecuhтли, "Lord of Torch Pine," and Xiuh-tecuhтли, "The Lord of Fire"	51
Amateotl, "God of Paper," "Paper God," "Divine Paper"	52
Rubber	56
Tepictoton, "Little Molded Ones"	56
The Xocotl Pole	57
Divine Drums	58
Conclusions	59
4. FLAYING, CURING, AND SHEDDING: SOME THOUGHTS ON THE AZTEC GOD XIPE TOTEC— Jill Leslie Furst	63
The Multiple Functions of Xipe Totec	63
The Importance of Skin	65
A Natural Model for Xipe Totec	66
Xipe as a Snake	68
5. BETSY AND HER "NEW TESTAMENT": THE INFECTIOUS INFLUENCE OF EXCELLENCE. A STUDY OF THE TECHNOLOGICAL AND SYMBOLIC IMPLICATIONS ENCODED IN AZTEC TEXTILE MOTIFS— Patricia R. Anawalt	75
Stamped Batik Textiles: The Bone Capes	78
The Symbolic Implications of the Black Capes'
Bone Motif	80
The Calaveras	82
Conclusion	86
Appendix— Virginia Davis	87
Part Two: Zapotec, Mixtec, and Toltec Themes
6. PLACE GLYPHS AND POLITY BOUNDARIES: TWO ZAPOTEC CASES— Joyce Marcus	91
The Boundaries of Ancient Zapotec
Polities	91
Sixteenth-Century Mapmaking	91

The Lienzos of Guevea	94	Tenango	163
Layout of the Lienzo de Guevea	94	Toltec	167
Lower Half of the Lienzo de Guevea	94	Xochicalco	167
Upper Half of the Lienzo de Guevea	97	Monte Alban	167
Boundary Names in the Lienzo de Guevea	100	The Fifth Sun	170
The Size of the Guevea Polity in A.D. 1540	102	Chichen Itza	170
The Size of the Monte Alban Polity in A.D. 200	102	Cacaxtla	172
Cuicatlan	102	Appendix: Register of Monumental Dates	174
Territorial Extent of the Monte Alban II State	104	Part Three: Maya Themes
The Shrinking of Polities Over Time	104	11. RENEWAL CEREMONIES IN THE MADRID CODEX— Gabrielle Vail	181
7. THE ARROYO GROUP LINTEL PAINTING AT MITLA, OAXACA— John M.D. Pohl	109	Introduction	181
Description of the Painting	109	Context	185
Interpretation of the Painting	112	4 Ahau Almanacs	186
Zaachila and Monte Alban	117	Models Proposed	193
8. ROADS AS CONNECTORS IN MIXTEC PICTORIAL HISTORIES— Nicholas Johnson	129	Discussion	198
Codex Bodley and Codex Colombino—Becker I	129	Concluding Remarks	199
Representations of Travel in the Manuscripts	130	Appendix: Seasonality of Madrid Almanacs	200
Connectors: Ligatures and Bases	131	12. ASTRONOMICAL REFERENCES IN THE WATER TABLES ON PAGES 69 TO 74 OF THE DRESDEN CODEX— Victoria R. Bricker and Harvey M. Bricker	213
The Narrative as a Line	132	13. SOLAR ASSOCIATIONS OF HUMMINGBIRD IMAGES IN THE MAYA CODICES— Merideth Paxton	231
The Journey to Tututepec in Codex Colombino	133	Hummingbird Traits	231
Multiple Strands in Codex Bodley	135	Solar Meanings in Hummingbird Passages of the Maya Codices	235
Roads of Ancient Ancestors in Codex Bodley	136	Seasonal Associations	236
Conclusions	141	The Traditional Reading of the Calendrical Intervals in the Madrid 10b–11b Almanac	237
9. CE ACATL NACXITL TOPILTZIN QUETZALCOATL OF TOLLAN = 4 JAGUAR OF “CATTAIL FRIEZE” AND MILITARY ALLY OF 8 DEER “JAGUAR CLAW”? — H. B. Nicholson	143	Directionally Oriented Reading of the Madrid 10b–11b Almanac	242
Introduction	143	Possible Meaning of the Hummingbird Symbol	247
Jansen's Topiltzin Quetzalcoatl = 4 Jaguar Hypothesis	144	Summary and Conclusions	247
Comment	150	14. YERBAS Y HECHICERÍAS DEL YUCATÁN : COLONIAL AND CONTEMPORARY PLANT USE IN YUCATAN, MEXICO— Marianna Appel Kunow	253
Concluding Observations	156	15. ADA/OPTING THE MAYAN HIEROGLYPHS AS PART OF TWENTIETH-CENTURY GUATEMALAN MAYAN TEXTS— Judith M. Maxwell	263
10. THE TOLTEC COUNTDOWN— Munro S. Edmonson	161	Part Four: Colonial Themes
Olmec	161	16. COLONIAL MEXICAN CALENDAR WHEELS: CULTURAL TRANSLATION AND THE PROBLEM OF “AUTHENTICITY”— Susan Spitler	271
Maya	161
Zapotec	161
Mixtec	161
Teotihuacan	162

Introduction	271
Previous Approaches to the Calendar Wheels	271
Calendar Wheels for European Use	274
Sahagún's Calendar Wheel	274
The Aztec Calendar and the European Zodiac	276
Calendar Wheels for Aztec Use	279
Codex Aubin	279
Boban Calendar Wheel	282
Codex Mexicanus	283
Conclusion	285
17. THE REORDERING OF SPACE IN SIXTEENTH- CENTURY MEXICO: SOME IMPLICATIONS OF THE GRID— Ellen T. Baird	289
The Grid of Ptolemaic Maps	289
Perspectival Grids	291
Gridded Urban Planning	294
18. PAINTING COLONIAL MEXICO: THE APPROPRIA- TION OF EUROPEAN ICONOGRAPHY IN MEXICAN MANUSCRIPT PAINTING— Lori Boornazian Diel	301
Aztec Painted Writings	302
Spanish Iconography in a Colonial Context	303
European Iconography as Glyphs with Meaning	304
Spanish Rulers and the European Folding Chair	305
The Folding Chair as an Icon of Rule	307
The Appropriation of the Spanish Icon of Rule	308
The Folding Chair in Tlaxcala	310
Conclusion	312
Part Five: Colonial Concerns Over Rulership and Land
19. SECULARIZING FOR SURVIVAL: CHANGING DE- PICTIONS OF CENTRAL MEXICAN NATIVE RULE IN THE EARLY COLONIAL PERIOD— William L. Barnes	319
Pre-Columbian Images of Rulers	320
Colonial Images of Indigenous Rulers	325
Conclusion	340
20. READING WOMEN INTO MIXTEC WRITINGS— Kevin Terraciano	345
		The Yuhuitaya	346
		Some Postconquest Changes	353
	21. AT HOME IN THE WORLD: MIXTEC ELITES AND THE TEOZACOALCO MAP-GENEALOGY— Barbara E. Mundy	363
	The Map-Genealogy	365
	Teozacoalco	366
	Connection to the Codices	368
	Context and Meaning	369
	The Community and the Map	370
	The Elite Divide	373
	Complementarity	375
	Parallel Cases	376
	Conclusions	377
	22. THE CODEX MURO AS A LAND DOCUMENT— Mary Elizabeth Smith	383
	The Addenda	384
	The Boundary Glosses	389
	Pages 3–5 and 9–11: Boundaries of Amatlán and San Miguel Adeques	389
	Pages 5–8: A Pictorial Map of San Pedro Cán- taros and a Regional Map Written in European Script	393
	The Towns of the Boundary Glosses	398
	Amatlán	398
	San Pedro Cántaros	399
	San Miguel Adeques	399
	Conclusions	400
	Appendix: Sources of Boundary Names of San Pedro Cantaros and Its Neighbors	411
	23. MIXTEC CODICES AND THE TRANSITION FROM NOBLE ESTATES TO CORPORATE COMMUNITIES IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY— John Monaghan	415
	Codices and Caciques	415
	The Suchitepec Villagómez	418
	Mixtec Pictorial Manuscripts in the Nineteenth Century	421
	24. A NEW TECHIALOYAN CODEX FROM SAN PEDRO TOTOTEPEC (TOLUCA, STATE OF MEXICO)— Xavier Noguez	427
	The Techialoyan Codices	427
	The Codex of Tototepec	430
	INDEX	437	