

LAW IN CONTEXT

Fourth edition

Stephen Bottomley

BA, LLB, LLM

Professor of Law, The Australian National University

Simon Bronitt

LLB, LLM

Professor of Law

Director, ARC Centre of Excellence in Policing and Security (CEPS), Griffith University

Foreword

The Hon Michael Kirby AC CMG

THE FEDERATION PRESS

2012

Table of Contents

Foreword by The Hon Michael Kirby AC CMG	v
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xvii
1 Law's Philosophical Foundations	1
(a) Introduction	1
(b) What is liberalism?	3
(c) Elements of liberalism	6
(d) The limits of liberalism: The case of pornography	31
(e) Conclusion	37
2 Legal Formalism and the Rule of Law	41
(a) Introduction	41
(b) The rule of law	42
(c) Formalism	55
(d) Conclusion	66
3 Gender	68
(a) Introduction	68
(b) Feminist theory	70
(c) Feminist perspectives on the public-private divide	87
(d) Equality rights: Anti-discrimination and affirmative action laws	92
(e) Conclusion	113
4 Race	116
(a) Introduction	116
(b) The legal construction of race	118
(c) Rethinking Aboriginal (in)justice: The recognition of Aboriginal laws	123
(d) Rethinking Aboriginal crime and criminal justice	142
(e) Conclusion	153
5 Access to Justice	159
(a) Introduction	159
(b) Problems of access to justice	160

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(c) Responses to problems of access	177
(d) Conclusion	200
6 Litigation	202
(a) Introduction	202
(b) The adversarial model	203
(c) Criminal litigation	217
(d) Civil litigation	233
(e) Conclusion	242
7 Lawyers, Clients and Ethics	245
(a) How lawyers deal with their clients	246
(b) Legal ethics	268
(c) The duty of confidentiality	276
8 The Politics of Law-Making	284
(a) Introduction	284
(b) Law and power	287
(c) Three perspectives on law and power	289
(d) The emergence of laws: Consensus and conflict	295
(e) Studies of the emergence of legislation	305
(f) Conclusion	326
9 Implementing Legal Rules	329
(a) Introduction	329
(b) Assessing the effect of legislation	330
(c) The implementation of legislation	333
(d) Law and regulation	343
(e) Types of regulation	344
(f) Problems in regulation	350
(g) Models of regulation	351
(h) Regulation and the rule of law	355
(i) Conclusion	356
10 Law in an Economic Context	358
(a) Introduction	358
(b) The claims of economic analysis	360
(c) Methodology, assumptions and concepts in economic analysis	361
(d) Applying economic theory to law	368
(c) The law of tort	378
(d) The common law as a whole	384
(e) Conclusion	393

TABLE OF CONTENTS

11 Law and Globalisation	396
(a) Introduction	396
(b) Definitions of globalisation	397
(c) Case study: Legal responses to global terrorism	410
(d) Case study: Legal responses to global business regulation	423
(e) Conclusion	430
 Index	 433