Power, Politics and International Events
Socio-cultural analyses of festivals and spectacles

Edited by
Udo Merkel
Notes on contributors ix
Acknowledgements xiii

PART I
Introduction 1

1 The critical, social-scientific study of international events: power, politics and conflicts 3
UDO MERKEL

PART II
Historical and developmental case studies 31

2 Regional events and festivals in Europe: revitalizing traditions and modernizing identities 33
LOUISA DEVISME

3 The historical roots of the Gymnaestrada: national gymnastics festivals in nineteenth-century Europe 53
ANGELA WICHMANN

4 World Expos and global power relations 67
JAYNE LUSCOMBE

5 A short, selective history of the Gay Games: conflicts, clashes and controversies 85
NIGEL JARVIS

PART III
Contemporary case studies and ethnographies 103

6 Global events and local conflicts: who owns the streets of London? 105
ADAM JONES AND JANET WOOLLEY
Contents

7 A day at the races: critical reflections of an insider 126
STEVEN GOSS-TURNER

8 Arts, acrobatics and athleticism in North Korea: power, politics and propaganda 142
UDO MERKEL

9 The World Baseball Classic: the production and politics of a new global sports spectacle 158
THOMAS F. CARTER

10 Politics as spectacle: U2’s 360° tour (2009–11) 174
MICHAEL WILLIAMS

Index 191