

The Complexity of Tax Simplification

Experiences From Around the World

Edited by

Simon James

Associate Professor of Economics, University of Exeter Business School, UK

Adrian Sawyer

Professor of Taxation, University of Canterbury, New Zealand

and

Tamer Budak

Associate Professor of Tax Law, Inonu University, Turkey

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Tables	viii
Preface	ix
Notes on Contributors	x
1 The Complexity of Tax Simplification: Experiences From Around the World Tamer Budak, Simon James and Adrian Sawyer	1
2 Tax Reform and Tax Simplification: Conceptual and Measurement Issues and Australian Experiences Binh Tran-Nam	11
3 Simplicity in the Chinese Context: The Categories of Differential Income Tax Treatment and Their Complications Nolan Cormac Sharkey	45
4 Tax Simplification in Canada: A Journey Not Yet Mapped François Vaillancourt and Richard Bird	70
5 Tax Simplification: The Case of Malaysia Veerinderjeet Singh	95
6 Complexity of Tax Simplification: A New Zealand Perspective Adrian Sawyer	110
7 The Complexity of Tax Simplification: Russia Alexander I. Pogorletskiy, Elena V. Kilinkarova and Nadezhda N. Bashkistrova	133
8 The Complexity of Tax Simplification: Experiences from South Africa Theuns Steyn and Madeleine Stiglingh	157
9 The Complexity of Tax Simplification: Experiences from Thailand Thamrongsak Svetalekth	187

10	The Complexity of Tax Simplification: Turkey Perspective Tamer Budak and Serkan Benk	209
11	The Complexity of Tax Simplification: The UK Experience Simon James	229
12	Complexity of Tax Simplification: USA Perspective Hughlene A. Burton and Stewart Karlinsky	247
	Index	267