

CONTENTS

FOREWORD	15
PROLOGUE: THE O-MATSURI	19
I. THE PRESENT AND PAST OF JAPANESE MUSIC	23
1. Japan's Musical Life	23
2. Music and Japanese History	24
II. RELIGIOUS MUSIC	41
1. Shinto Music	41
Introduction	41
Mi-kagura	42
Sato-kagura	47
2. Buddhist Music	64
Theory and Practice	64
Buddhist Folk Music and Festivals	71
3. Christian Music	74
4. Summary	75
III. GAGAKU, THE COURT MUSIC OF JAPAN	77
1. The History of Court Music	77
2. The Instruments	91
Percussion	91
Strings	93
Winds	95
3. Theory and Practice	100

IV. NOHGAKE, THE MUSIC OF THE NOH DRAMA	105
1. Introduction	105
2. The History of Noh Music	105
3. The Structure of a Noh Play	108
4. The Ensemble	119
The Noh Flute	119
The Drums	122
The Singing	127
5. Summary	130
V. BIWA MUSIC	133
1. Introduction	133
2. The History of Biwa Music	133
3. The Instrument and the Music	138
VI. THE SHAKUHACHI	151
1. The History of the Shakuhachi	151
2. The Instrument and the Music	158
VII. KOTO MUSIC	165
1. Introduction	165
2. The History of the Koto	165
3. Japanese Music Teaching	170
4. The Instrument and Its Music	177
VIII. THE SHAMISEN AND ITS MUSIC	185
1. The Instrument and Its Background	185
2. The History and Construction of Shamisen Music	187
Katarimono	188
Gidayu-bushi	199
Utaimono	203
Nagauta	205

IX. KABUKI MUSIC	213
1. The Components of Kabuki Music	213
2. The Texture of Kabuki Music	228
X. FOLK MUSICAL ARTS	235
1. Introduction	235
2. Folk Songs	236
3. Folk Theatricals and Dances	248
EPILOGUE	253
APPENDIX I. A Time Chart of Japanese Music History	255
APPENDIX II. An Outline of Japanese Music Notation Systems	261
BIBLIOGRAPHY	277
INDEX AND GLOSSARY	283

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

PLATES

1 (Frontispiece). A folk hayashi and okame dancer	4
2. Tomb figurine of a wagon player	27
3. Devil dancers of the Yasurai festival	53
4. Yasurai festival dancers with atarigane	54
5. A dancer-priestess with suzu	55
6. Lion dancers	55
7. Folk kagura dancer from Shimane	56
8. Yuki Matsuri dancer with bin-sasara	56
9. The "Modoki" dance from the Yuki Matsuri	57
10. Shinto chanting at the Yuki Matsuri	57
11. Mokugyo and Buddhist priests	58
12. Buddhist wasan singing	58
13. Edo-period musicians	59
14. Itinerant shaman with uchiwa-daiko	59
15. Goeika dancing of the Jodo sect	60
16. Bon-odori from Miyakejima	60
17. Buddhist folk festival from Nagano	61
18. A deer dance from Iwate	61
19. Street musicians of modern Tokyo	62
20. Screen painting showing an eighteenth-century completion ceremony at the Todaiji	79
21. Fourteenth-century scroll showing court music of the time	80
22. The ancient "Genjoraku" court dance	80
23. Four early court-music instruments	81
24. Scene of ancient party music	81
25. A masked bugaku dancer	82

26. Bugaku dancers at the palace music hall	82
27. An outdoor bugaku performance at Ise Shrine	83
28. The imperial bugaku orchestra	84
29. A bugaku ensemble at the Gion Shrine	85
30. Four Japanese flutes	85
31. The large da-daiko drum	86
32. A shoko gong	86
33. An outdoor performance on the wagon	87
34. Buddhist monk with hichiriki	88
35. A small court-music ensemble from Hiraizumi	88
36. The noh stage	113
37. Mibu-kyogen performance of Kyoto	114
38. Noh-flute player from the noh haya-shi	115
39. An "O-shirabe" session before a noh performance	115
40. Ko-tsuzumi lessons	116
41. The ko-tsuzumi hand position	117
42. Assembling the ko-tsuzumi	117
43. Taiko playing the kashira stroke	118
44. Biwa scene from the Genji scroll	139
45. A Satsuma-biwa performance	140
46. A Chikuzen-biwa performance	141
47. Three types of biwa	141
48. The making of a biwa	142
49. A shakuhachi performance	155
50. Four end-blown flutes	155

51. A komuso with basket hat and shakuhachi	156
52. A jiuta ensemble	173
53. A home koto performance	174
54. The koto hand position	175
55. Two types of kokyu	175
56. Edo-period street musicians	176
57. The Gidayu couple of the bunraku puppet theatre	193
58-69. Takemoto Tsudayu during a bunraku performance	194-95
70. The Ryukyu jamisen	196
71. A full nagauta ensemble	196
72. The Gidayu shamisen player	197
73. Two types of shamisen	197
74. A geisha nagauta ensemble for the "Miyako-odori"	198
75. The kabuki stage	215

76. The finale of Momiji Gari	216-17
77. The michiyuki section of Momiji Gari	218
78. The kabuki stage during Kanjincho	219
79. The geza musicians of kabuki	220
80. Folk hayashi	237
81. Masked lion dancers	238
82. Devil dancers with drums	239
83. The "Oni-daiko" dance from Sado Island	239
84. A folk puppet play from Sado Island	240
85. A country-kabuki performance of Chushingura	240
86. The "Yasuda-odori" from Shodo Is- land	241
87. Folk musicians from Sado Island	241
88. Ainu women singing "Rekukkara"	242
89. The Ainu tonkori	242

FIGURES

1. Tuning of the wagon	44
2. The folk pentatonic scale	44
3. The four wagon melodic patterns	45
4. The Yuki Matsuri devil-dance music	63
5. The ryo and ritsu scales	66
6. The two gaku-so music patterns	94
7. A hichiriki version of "Etenraku"	97
8. The pipes of the sho	99
9. The twelve Japanese tones	101
10. The six gagaku modes	101
11. The yokyoku tone system	128
12. A Heike-biwa vocal section	145
13. Biwa tunings	146
14. A Chikuzen-biwa nagashimono section	149
15. The evolution of the shakuhachi mouthpiece	152
16. Shakuhachi music	160
17. Koto tunings	178
18. Shamisen tunings	187
19. Ozatsuma patterns	205

20. An excerpt from the "Ise-ondo"	243
21. An excerpt from a bon-odori from Chiba	245
22. Go-on-hakase symbols	261
23. The go-onfu	263
24. Karifu, modified go-onfu, and meya-sufu notations	263
25. The koshiki-gomaten notation	263
26. Noh vocal notation	263
27. Gagaku notation	264
28. Hichiriki and ryuteki notation symbols	265
29. The chords and notes of the sho	265
30. Noh-hayashi section in traditional notation	266
31. Transcription of Figure 30 in Western notation	267
32. Taiko notation symbols	268
33. A transcription of chirikara-byoshi	269
34. Biwa notation	270
35. Shakuhachi notation of the Kinko school	271

36. Shakuhachi notation symbols	271
37. Koto notation symbols	272
38. A transcription of Yamada koto	272
39. Ikuta koto notation	273

40. Shamisen notation	273
41. A transcription of shamisen music in bunkafu notation	274
42. Gidayu-bushi notation	274