

Contents

| | |
|----------------|-----|
| List of Tables | vi |
| Preface | vii |
| Abbreviations | xi |

PART I. INTRODUCTION

| | |
|---|----|
| 1. The Theoretical Framework | 3 |
| 2. Introduction to the Four Political Economies | 24 |

PART II. ECONOMIC RECESSION AND POLITICAL CHANGE

| | |
|--|-----|
| 3. From Social Concertation to Neoliberal Restructuring | 55 |
| 4. Holding Companies in Belgium and Austria | 82 |
| 5. Transnational Corporations in the Netherlands and Sweden | 108 |
| 6. Central Bank Independence in Belgium and the Netherlands | 136 |
| 7. Dependent Central Banks in Austria and Sweden | 164 |

PART III. THE INTERNATIONAL DIMENSION

| | |
|---|-----|
| 8. The Question of Community Membership | 195 |
| 9. European Integration in the 1980s | 217 |
| 10. The Future of Social Democracy | 244 |
| Index | 255 |

Tables

| | |
|--|-----|
| 1. Real growth of GDP | 57 |
| 2. Change in private consumption | 57 |
| 3. Rate of unemployment | 58 |
| 4. Rate of total employment | 59 |
| 5. Rates of change in real hourly earnings and unit labor costs in manufacturing | 78 |
| 6. Unit labor costs and export prices in manufacturing | 79 |
| 7. Machinery and equipment as percentage of GDP | 80 |
| 8. Nonresidential construction as percentage of GDP | 81 |
| 9. Sources of tax revenues | 128 |
| 10. Consumer price indices | 138 |
| 11. Current account surplus/deficit as percentage of GDP | 170 |
| 12. Vulnerability to international pressures, 1982 | 218 |
| 13. Economic performance of small European states, 1980–1985 and 1989–1990 | 219 |