

Contents

PART I	INTRODUCTION	9
1	Initial Remarks, Aims and Organization of the Study	11
	Introduction	11
	Objectives and organization	14
PART II	THE LABOUR MARKET	17
2	The Gender Organization of the Swedish Labour Market	19
	Women's rising gainful employment	19
	Part-time work—trait of mothers of toddlers	20
	Gender distribution according to sector and occupation	23
	Gender differentiation, salary and position	27
	The repetition of gender discrimination	30
	Gender, the division of work and power	31
	The need for labour and the struggle for equality	33
	From a structural gender orientation to a feminist perspective	35
Part III	THEORETICAL FOUNDATIONS	37
3	Contexts of Living and Life-Forms	39
	Contexts of living	39
	The concept and analysis of life-forms	40
	Different life-forms	42
	Family business or self-employed life-form	42
	Employee and career life-forms	43
	Bourgeois life-form	45
	The transformation of life-forms	45
	The family's function in the life-forms	46
	Several types of women's praxis	47
	"Back-up" and housewife's praxis	48
	The praxis of gainfully employed women	49
	Limitations in the theory of life-forms	50
	Masculine foundations	51
	The space where women can act	52
	An active subject	52

4	Women's Strategies	55
	Women's subjugation and strategies at a social level	55
	Male domination and strategies of the individual personality	58
	Male domination and interpersonal relations between women	59
	Women's interpersonal solidarity and strategies for combating male domination	60
	The intertwining of gender and class in women's strategies	62
5	A Feminist-Geographic Perspective of Space and Time	64
	Time-geography	65
	The time-geographic approach	66
	Constraints or limits on actions	68
	Projects	69
	Descriptive model	71
	Time-geography and the context of women's lives	75
	Concepts of time and women's adaptation	78
PART IV	EMPIRICAL STUDY	83
6	Method	85
	The design and implementation of the study	85
	Steps in collecting the material	85
	Selection principles for the interviews in Kristianstad	86
	The nature of the interviews	88
	Steps in the process of analysis	91
	A qualitative analysis	92
	The area of investigation—the municipal district of Kristianstad	94
7	The Work Place and Gainful Employment	98
	Women in the working class—the employee life-form	98
	The content and organization of work	98
	Experience of the work situation	104
	Conclusions—subordination in employee life-form concealed	110
	Women in the middle strata—the career-oriented life-form	112
	The content and organization of work	112
	Experiencing the work situation	118
	Conclusions—inclination towards a career life-form with concealed subordination and a touch of protest	122
	Commentary—women and occupational hierarchies	124
8	The Dwelling, Housework and Leisure	126
	Women in the working class—the employee life-form	126
	Dwelling and home	126
	Housework and leisure	131
	Conclusions—a family orientation in the employee life-form	136

	Women in the middle strata—the career life-form	138
	Dwelling and home	138
	Housework and leisure	143
	Conclusions—A family orientation with individuation in the mediating and career-oriented life-forms	148
	Commentary—Home reflects a woman's identity	149
9	The Organization of Everyday Living	152
	The daily lives of women in space and time	152
	An ordinary day in the lives of three women	152
	The use of time	160
	Time-diaries' portrayal of gainful employment and housework	164
	Conclusions—How a family orientation is linked to gainful employment	168
	Organizational obstacles	169
	Is it good for the children?	170
	Can one find enough time?	173
	How do women manage?	178
	Conclusions—Similar organizational obstacles but various solutions	183
	Commentary—Fitting the pieces together, daily living— a theme with variations	183
PART V	SYNTHESIS	187
10	Life-Forms and Strategies Specific to Women	189
	Life-forms specific to women	189
	Women's strategies	191
	Male domination and female subjugation	194
	The concept of adaptive strategy	196
	The temporal dimension	197
	The spatial dimension	200
	A model of a modern life-form?	202
	A wealth of new questions	205
	References	207