

Table of Contents

Gerhard Fischer
Preface	vii
David Roberts
Introduction: Debating Enzensberger	ix
I	Enzensberger's Intellectual Journey
1.	Gert Mattenklott Enzensberger's Iterology in the Century of Migrations 3
2.	Markus Joch Gaining Positions of Distinction: On Enzensberger's Provocations. 13
3.	David Roberts What's Left?— Enzensberger and the Role of the Intellectual in Germany 31
4.	Horst Domdey Can the Republic Be Lived In? – Enzensberger's Great Migration and Civil War Viewed Against the Background of His Literary Development Since 1960 39
5.	Gerhard Fischer 'Middle Way' and 'Recognition': Enzensberger's Essays on the Political Culture of the Federal Republic. 49
II	Civil War and the Politics of War and Violence
6.	Pam Stavropoulos Eliding Politics: Enzensberger and the Aesthetics of Evasion 73
7.	Tom Morton The 'Balkanised' Subject: Enzensberger, Zizek and the Ecstasy of Violence 93
8.	Peter Morgan 'Something greater, an emotion more transcendent': Violence and the Reconstruction of Group Identity in Enzensberger's Civil War 103

9.	Richard Herzinger Universalism in one Country? Hans Magnus Enzensberger and the Reaction of German Intellectuals to the Return of War in Europe	117
----	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

10.	Rainer Stollmann Hans Magnus Enzensberger Takes the Stand on Civil War : A Talk Show Scenario.	127
-----	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

III Great Migration and the Politics of Identity

11.	Bernd Fischer Enzensberger and the Politics of Identity	145
-----	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

12.	Klaus J. Bade From Emigration Country without Emigration Law to Immigration Country without Immigration Law: German Paradoxes in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries	155
-----	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

13.	Stephen Castles A German Dilemma: Ethnic Identity and the Debate on Citizenship	169
-----	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

14.	Thomas Wägenbaur On the Train: Enzensberger, Kafka and the Dilemmas of Racism	187
-----	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

15.	Andrzej Wirth On Enzensberger and Postwar Migration, or: Transcending Nativism – Reflections of a Notorious Expatriate	203
-----	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

16.	John Docker Debating Ethnicity and History: From Enzensberger to Darville/Demidenko	213
-----	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Notes on Contributors		225
----------------------------------------	--	------------