

Contents

Introduction	1
Don E. Marietta Jr.
1 Environmental Philosophy Is Environmental Activism: The Most Radical and Effective Kind	19
J. Baird Callicott
2 The Environmental Roots of Environmental Activism	37
Timothy Casey
3 Phenomenology of Action for Ecosystemic Health or How to Tend One's Own Garden	51
Lester Embree
4 The Implicit Practice of Environmental Philosophy	67
Irene J. Klaver
5 Reflection and Environmental Activism	79
Don E. Marietta Jr.
6 How Deep Is Deep Enough? Ecological Modernization or Farewell to the World-City?	99
Ullrich Melle
7 Applied Philosophy vs. Practical Philosophy: Toward an Environmental Policy Integrated According to Scale	125
Bryan G. Norton

8	The Missing Shade of Green Kate Rawles	149
9	Can Animal Rights Activists Be Environmentalists? Gary E. Varner	169
10	The Identity Crisis in Environmental Philosophy Richard A. Watson	203
11	Environmental Activism and Appropriate Monism Peter S. Wenz	215
	Index	229
	About the Contributors	233