

Contents

Notes on contributors	vii
 Part I A conceptual framework: historical and cultural themes
1 Introduction	3
Colin Murray Parkes, Pittu Laungani and Bill Young
2 Culture and religion	10
Colin Murray Parkes, Pittu Laungani and Bill Young
 Part II Major world systems of belief and ritual
3 Grief in small-scale societies	27
Paul C. Rosenblatt
4 Death in a Hindu family	52
Pittu Laungani
5 A death on the roof of the world: The perspective of Tibetan Buddhism	73
Uwe P. Gielen
6 Jewish views and customs on death	98
Ellen Levine
7 Christianity	131
Harold Ter Blanche and Colin Murray Parkes
8 The many facets of Islam: Death, dying and disposal between orthodox rule and historical convention	147
Gerdien Jonker

9	Secularization Tony Walter	166
 Part III Practical implications and conclusions
10	Childhood, death and bereavement across cultures Bill Young and Danai Papadatou	191
11	Help for the dying and bereaved Colin Murray Parkes	206
12	Conclusions I: Implications for practice and policy Pittu Laungani	218
13	Conclusions II: Attachments and losses in cross-cultural perspective Colin Murray Parkes	233
	Bibliography	244
	Index	252