

Contents

Preface

PART I Introduction

Chapter 1

The Management Control Function

Planning and Control Activities 4

Strategy Formulation 4

Task Control 4

Management Control 5

The Management Control Environment 5

Organizational Structure 6

Organizational Relationships and Members' Behavior 6

Information 7

Efficiency and Effectiveness 11

The Management Control Structure 12

Types of Responsibility Centers 13

Mission Centers and Service Centers 15

Responsibility Centers and Programs 16

The Management Control Process 17

Strategic Planning 18

Budget Preparation 19

Operating and Measurement 20

Reporting and Evaluation 20

Characteristics of a Good Management Control System 21

A Total System 21

Goal Congruence 21

Financial Framework 21

Rhythm 22

Integration 22

Boundaries of This Book 22

Exclusion of Systems Approach 23

Suggested Additional Readings 24

Case 1–1	Hamilton Hospital (A)	25
Case 1–2	Boulder Public Schools	35

Chapter 2

Characteristics of Nonprofit Organizations	44
---	----

- Nature of the Nonprofit Sector 45
 - Diversity of Demands on Managers 46*
 - Size and Composition of the Nonprofit Sector 47*
- Characteristics of Nonprofit Organizations 48
- The Profit Measure 48
 - Usefulness of the Profit Measure 49*
- Tax and Legal Considerations 51
 - Tax Considerations 51*
 - Legal Considerations 53*
- Service Organizations 55
- Constraints on Goals and Strategies 56
 - Diversification through New Ventures 56*
- Source of Financial Support 57
 - Contrast between Client-Supported and Public-Supported Organizations 58*
- Professionals 59
- Governance 60
 - Governing Boards in Nonprofit Organizations 60*
 - Government Organizations 62*
- Political Influences 62
 - Necessity for Reelection 63*
 - Public Visibility 63*
 - Multiple External Pressures 63*
 - Legislative Restrictions 63*
 - Management Turnover 64*
 - Civil Service 64*
- Tradition 64
 - Barriers to Progress 65*
- Summary 65
- Appendix Differences among Nonprofit Organizations 66
- Suggested Additional Readings 69
- Case 2–1 Granville Symphony Orchestra 70
- Case 2–2 New England Trust 76

PART II Management Control Principles 83

Chapter 3

General Purpose Financial Statements	85
---	----

Standard-Setting Bodies	86
Standards for Private Nonprofit Organizations	86
Nature of the Standards	87

Revenues and Expenses	88
Financial Statement Differences	92
Financial Statement Presentation	96
Financial Management Issues	98
Standards for Governmental Organizations	99
Government Accounting Standards Board	99
Basic Concepts of Nonfederal Government Accounting	99
Generational Equity	102
Federal Government Accounting	102
Budgetary System	103
Federal Accounting System	104
Reconciling Budgetary and Financial Accounting	106
Summary	106
Appendix Financial Management Issues in Private Nonprofit Organizations	107
Suggested Additional Readings	111
Case 3-1 The Athenaeum School	115
Case 3-2 Gotham Meals on Wheels	127
Case 3-3 Brookstone Ob-Gyn Associates (B)	129
Case 3-4 Menotomy Home Health Services	136
Case 3-5 Boise Park Health Care Foundation	141
Case 3-6 Merced College	147
Case 3-7 City of Douglas	151

Chapter 4

Full-Cost Accounting

159

Uses of Full-Cost Information 159

Pricing 159

Profitability Assessments 160

Comparative Analyses 160

Cost Accounting System Decisions 160

Final Cost Object 161

Intermediate Cost Objects 161

Cost Centers 162

Cost Assignment 163

Bases of Allocation 164

The Allocation Method 164

Attaching Mission Center Costs to Intermediate Cost Objects 166

An Illustration 168

Interactive Effects 174

Complicating Factors 174

Defining Direct Costs 174

Appropriateness of Indirect Costs 175

Standard Costs 176

Capital Costs 177

Opportunity Costs	177
Imputed Costs	177
Statistical System Costs	178
Implications	178
Summary	179
Appendix Cost Accounting Terminology	179
Suggested Additional Readings	180
Case 4-1 Croswell University Hospital	181
Case 4-2 Jefferson High School	190
Case 4-3 Harbor City Children's Center	195
Case 4-4 Neighborhood Servings	199
Case 4-5 Bureau of Engraving and Printing	204

Chapter 5

Measurement and Use of Differential Costs 211

The Nature of Cost Analyses for Alternative Choice Decisions	212
Cost Behavior	212
Fixed Costs	213
Step-Function Costs	213
Variable Costs	214
Semivariable Costs	214
Total Costs	214
Breakeven Analysis	216
Unit Contribution	218
Fundamental Assumptions of Breakeven Analysis	218
Estimating the Cost-Volume Relationship	221
High-Low Method	221
Scatter Diagram Method	222
Least Squares or Linear Regression Method	222
Incremental Method	222
Element Analysis	223
Complicating Factors	223
Use of Information from Full-Cost Reports	223
Differential Costs versus Variable and Fixed Costs	225
Contribution to Overhead Costs	227
The Outsourcing Decision	227
Nature of the Outsourcing Decision	228
General Principles	228
Role of Depreciation	229
The Move toward Privatization	229
Summary	232
Suggested Additional Readings	232
Case 5-1 Carlesbad Home Care	234
Case 5-2 Springfield Handyman Program	236

Case 5-3 Abbington Youth Center 237

Case 5-4 Lakeside Hospital 240

Case 5-5 Town of Belmont 244

Chapter 6

Pricing Decisions

248

Relevance of Pricing to Management Control 248

Client Behavior 249

Measure of Output 249

Behavior of Managers 250

Normal Pricing 251

Full Cost 251

Need for a Satisfactory Margin 252

Danger of Normal Pricing 254

The Pricing Unit 254

Hospital Pricing as an Example of Unbundling 255

Variations from Normal Prices 256

Prices Influenced by Outside Forces 256

Cost Reimbursement 257

Market-Based Prices 258

Pricing Subsidized Services 258

Subsidies for Certain Services 258

Subsidies for Some Clients 260

Subsidies for All Clients 261

Free Services 262

Public Goods 262

Quasi-Public Goods 262

Charges for Peripheral Services 264

Other Free Services 264

Summary 265

Suggested Additional Readings 265

Case 6-1 Harlan Foundation 266

Case 6-2 Grindel College 269

Case 6-3 Town of Waterville Valley 274

Case 6-4 Central Valley Primary Care Associates 283

Case 6-5 Boston University Medical Center Hospital 287

PART III Management Control Systems

297

Chapter 7

The Management Control Environment

299

The Organizational Structure 300

Responsibility Centers 300

Types of Responsibility Centers	301
Transfer Prices	302
Criteria for Profit Centers	304
Profit Centers and Managerial Autonomy	306
Subsidization among Profit Centers	307
The Program Structure	307
Components of a Program Structure	309
Criteria for Selecting a Program Structure	310
Matrix Organizations	311
The Information Structure	313
Administrative Factors	314
Types of Rules	314
The Reward Structure	315
Behavioral Factors	316
Personal Goals and Needs	316
Goal Congruence	317
Cooperation and Conflict	318
The Bureaucracy	319
Role of the Controller	319
Cultural Factors	320
Management Attitude	320
Other Aspects of Culture	320
Summary	321
Suggested Additional Readings	322
Case 7-1 Franklin Health Associates (A)	323
Case 7-2 Piedmont University	332
Case 7-3 New York City Sanitation Department	336
Case 7-4 White Hills Children's Museum	339
Case 7-5 National Youth Association	342
Case 7-6 Converse Health System	344
 Chapter 8
Strategic Planning	353
Nature of Strategic Planning	353
Strategic Planning and Budgeting	353
Strategic Planning and Strategy Formulation	354
Goals, Objectives, and Programs	355
Linking Goals, Objectives, and Programs	358
Participants in the Strategic Planning Process	359
Planning Staff	359
Role of the Controller	360
Process for Considering a Proposed New Program	360
Initiation	361
Screening	361

Technical Analysis	363
Political Analysis	363
Decision and Selling	364
Formal Strategic Planning Systems	366
The Planning, Programming, and Budgeting System	367
The Strategic Planning Period	367
Steps in a Formal Strategic Planning System	367
Summary	370
Suggested Additional Readings	371
Case 8-1 Suard College	372
Case 8-2 Wright State University	375
Case 8-3 South Brookfield Hospital	380
Case 8-4 Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum	388
 Chapter 9
Program Analysis	396
Benefit/Cost Analysis	396
Status of Benefit/Cost Analysis	396
Role of Benefit/Cost Analysis	397
Clarifying Goals	399
Proposals Susceptible to Benefit/Cost Analysis	400
Benefit/Cost as a Way of Thinking	402
Some Analytical Techniques	403
Capital Investment Analysis	403
Payback Period	403
Present Value	403
Net Present Value	404
Benefit/Cost Ratio	406
Internal Rate of Return	406
Choice of a Discount Rate	407
Incorporating Risk into the Analysis	409
Quantifying the Value of a Human Being	410
Summary	413
Appendix The Concept of Present Value	414
Suggested Additional Readings	415
Case 9-1 Yoland Research Institute	418
Case 9-2 Downtown Parking Authority	420
Case 9-3 Green Valley Medical Center	422
Case 9-4 Disease Control Programs	434
 Chapter 10
Budgeting	443
The Capital Budget	443

General Nature of the Operating Budget	444
Relationship between Strategic Planning and Budgeting	444
Two-Stage Budgets	445
Contrast with For-Profit Companies	445
Components of the Operating Budget	446
Revenues	446
Expenses and Expenditures	449
Output Measures	451
Steps in the Operations Budgeting Process	451
Dissemination of Guidelines	452
Preparation of Budget Estimates	452
Review of Budget Estimates	454
Budget Approval	459
Use of Models	459
Summary	461
Appendix Some Budget Ploys	462
Suggested Additional Readings	470
Case 10–1 Moray Junior High School	471
Case 10–2 Urban Arts Institute	476
Case 10–3 Lomita Hospital	490
Case 10–4 New England Medical Center	500

Chapter 11

Control of Operations

513

Financial Control in General	513
Types of Financial Control	514
Flow of Spending Authority	515
Budget Adjustments	517
Financial Control via the Accounting System	518
General Characteristics	518
Encumbrance Accounting	519
Financial Control via Auditing	520
Compliance Auditing	520
External Auditing	523
Performance Control	523
Relationship to Task Control	524
Relationship to Productivity	525
Operational Auditing	526
Project Control	530
Behavioral Considerations	531
Senior Management Involvement	531
Importance of Adequate Staffs	531
Balance between Freedom and Restraint	532
Motivation	532
Summary	535

Appendix The Encumbrance Accounting Process	536
Suggested Additional Readings	538
Case 11-1 Hospital San Pedro	540
Case 11-2 Northeast Research Laboratory (A)	543
Case 11-3 WIC Program	549
Case 11-4 Haas School of Business	560

Chapter 12

Measurement of Output

568

Basic Measurement Categories	569
Social Indicators	569
Results Measures	570
Process Measures	571
Linkages among Measures	575
Issues in Selecting Output Measures	576
Subjective versus Objective	577
Quantitative versus Nonquantitative	577
Discrete versus Scalar	577
Actual versus Surrogate Measures	578
Quantity versus Quality	579
Implementing Output Measures: Some General Principles	581
Principle 1: Some Measure of Output Is Usually Better than None	581
Principle 2: If Feasible, Compare Output Measures to Measures Available from Outside Sources	582
Principle 3: Use Measures That Can Be Reported in a Timely Manner	583
Principle 4: Develop a Variety of Measures	584
Principle 5: Don't Report More Information than Is Likely to Be Used	586
Principle 6: Don't Give More Credence to Surrogates than Is Warranted	587
Comparison of Output Measures for Strategy Formulation and Management Control	587
Precision	588
Causality	588
Responsibility	589
Timeliness	589
Cost	589
Relation to Program Elements	589
Summary	590
Suggested Additional Readings	590
Case 12-1 Morazan and Izaltenango	592
Case 12-2 Bernard Middle School	600
Case 12-3 Charlottesville Fire Department	610

Chapter 13

Reporting on Performance: Technical Aspects

616

Types of Information	616
----------------------	-----

Types of Organizations	617
Businesslike Organizations	617
Fixed-Resource Organizations	618
Fixed-Job Organizations	618
Role of Responsibility Centers	619
Variance Analysis	619
Volume Variances	620
Mix Variances	621
Selling Price Variances	622
Rate Variances	622
Usage/Efficiency Variances	623
An Illustration of Variances in a Hospital Setting	624
Variance Analysis and Management Control	630
Other Measures	631
Summary	631
Appendix Computing Variances	632
Suggested Additional Readings	635
Case 13–1 Huntington Beach	636
Case 13–2 Pacific Park School	637
Case 13–3 Spruce Street Inn	639
Case 13–4 Los Reyes Hospital	641

Chapter 14

Reporting on Performance: The Management Control Reports	646
---	-----

Types of Reports	646
Information Reports	646
Performance Reports	647
Sources of Information	648
Contents of Control Reports	648
Relationship to Personal Responsibility	648
Comparison with a Standard	651
Focus on Significant Information	652
Technical Criteria for Control Reports	655
The Control Period	655
Bases for Comparison	655
Timeliness	656
Clarity	656
Integration	657
Benefit/Cost	658
An Illustration	658
Use of Control Reports	660
Feedback	661
Review and Identification	661
Investigation	663
Action	663

- Summary 664
- Suggested Additional Readings 664
- Case 14–1 Franklin Health Associates (B) 666
- Case 14–2 Union Medical Center 670
- Case 14–3 University Daycare Center 676

Chapter 15

Operations Analysis and Program Evaluation

684

- Basic Distinctions 684
 - Differences between Operations Analysis and Program Evaluation* 685
- Operations Analysis 686
 - Need for Operations Analysis* 686
 - Impetus for Operations Analysis* 686
 - Who Conducts the Operations Analysis?* 687
 - The Operations Analysis Process* 688
- Program Evaluation 695
 - Impetus for Program Evaluation* 695
 - Problems in Program Evaluation* 696
 - Types of Program Evaluations* 700
 - Steps in Making an Evaluation* 704
- Summary 706
- Suggested Additional Readings 707
- Case 15–1 Bureau of Child Welfare 709
- Case 15–2 Timilty Middle School 714
- Case 15–3 Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency 727

Chapter 16

Management Control Systems in Context

735

- Key Characteristics of Good Management Control 735
- The Management Control Context 737
 - Role of Senior Management* 738
 - Role of Personal Computers* 739
- The Broader Organizational Context 740
- Suggested Additional Readings 744
- Case 16–1 The Management Control Context 745
- Case 16–2 Northridge 745
- Case 16–3 Massachusetts General Physicians Organization 752
- Case 16–4 Northeast Research Laboratory (B) 769
- Case 16–5 Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center 780
- Case 16–6 Easter Seal Foundation of New Hampshire and Vermont, Inc. 797
- Case 16–7 Fletcher Allen Health Care 817