

Contents

Acknowledgments viii

Introduction xi

I. Measure It

D. L. Pughe	Letter from the Far Territories	3
Patrick D. Wall	Some Notes on the Future of Pain	9
Ronald Melzack	The McGill Pain Questionnaires	24
John O'Neill	Two Cartographies of AIDS: The (In)describable Pain of HIV/AIDS	27
Michael Fernandes	it may be	42
Isabelle Brabant	Reflections on Pain in Childbirth	47
Millie Chen	Demon Girl and Hungry Ghost	56
Gerard Päs	Dream Memory of the Brace/Red-Blue Wheelchair	58

2. Scream and Yell

Cathy Sisler	backwards	62
Cathy Busby	We Need to Scream to Talk:
	An Interview with Kecia Larkin	64
Fred Wilson	About Face II	73
Cathy Busby	The Lure of Roseanne's Autopathography and Survivor Identity	77
Jana Sterbak	House of Pain: A Relationship	92

3. Cut It Open

Kim Sawchuk	Wounded States: Sovereignty, Separation, and the Quebec Referendum	96
Theodore Wan	Bridine Scrub for General Surgery	116
Johanne Sloan	Spectacles of Virtuous Pain	119
Theodore Wan	Bound by Everyday Necessities I and II	130
Gregory Whitehead	Display Wounds: Ruminations of a Vulnerologist	133
Barbara McGill Balfour	Senile Uterus / Macerated Liver (from Dermatographia, 1992)	141

4. Take a Pill

Stephen Busby	Taking Control: How I Learned to Live with AIDS	147
Bob Flanagan	Pain Journal	164
Bill Burns	Analgesia	177
Elsie Petch	Reclaiming Responsibility: Seniors, Medication, and Health Promotion in South Riverdale	182
Fred Tomaselli	Self-Portrait	191
Charles R. Acland	Take Two: Post-Fordist Discourses of the Corporate and Corporeal	195

5. Intensify It

Marie-Paule Macdonald	Reach for the Pain	213
Thyrza Nichols Goodeve	You sober people	228
Margaret Morse	Smarting Flesh: Pain and the Posthuman	247
Celeste Olalquiaga	Pain Practices and the Reconfiguration of Physical Experience	255
Julia Scher	American Fibroids	267
	Contributors	273
	Permissions	279
	Index	281