

Contents

Contributors	ix
Introduction to the Review of Psychiatry Series	xi
John M. Oldham, M.D., and Michelle B. Riba, M.D., M.S., Series Editors
Foreword	xv
Jerald Kay, M.D.

---

Chapter 1

Integrated Treatment: An Overview	1
Jerald Kay, M.D.
Introduction	1
Integrated Treatment and the Definition of Psychiatry	2
Historical Resistance to Integrated Treatment	4
Potential Beneficial Effects of Integrated Treatment	4
Are Integrated Treatment and Combined Treatment Effective?	8
Substance-Related Disorders	16
Personality Disorders	16
Integrated Treatment: Unanswered Scientific Questions	20
Recommendations for the Clinician	22
References	24

---

Chapter 2

Psychodynamic Therapy and Medication: Can Treatments in Conflict Be Integrated?	31
Steven P. Roose, M.D.
Introduction	31
Historical Review	32
Changing Attitudes	36

Is an Integrated Model Possible?	42
Clinical Care: Sequencing Treatments	43
Clinical Recommendations	45
Conclusion	48
References	49

---

Chapter 3

Integrated Treatment Planning for Borderline Personality Disorder	51
John M. Oldham, M.D.
Introduction	51
Assessment	52
Developing a Biopsychosocial Treatment Plan	61
Summary and Conclusions	73
References	73

---

Chapter 4

Integrated Treatment of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drug Addictions	79
Douglas Ziedonis, M.D., M.P.H.
Jonathan Krejci, Ph.D.
Sylvia Atdjian, M.D.
Introduction	79
Goals of Psychotherapy for Substance Use Disorders	81
Specific Psychotherapies for Substance Use Disorders	85
Timing and Role of Medications for Substance Use Disorders	88
Combined Treatment Studies For Opioid, Alcohol, Cocaine, and Alcohol Use Disorders	91
Recommendations and Conclusions	103
References	104

---

Chapter 5

A Cognitive Therapy Approach to

Medication Compliance 113

Judith S. Beck, Ph.D.

Introduction	113
The Cognitive Model of Noncompliance	114
Preventing Compliance Problems	121
Uncovering Noncompliance	124
Specifying the Causes of Noncompliance	125
Behavioral Techniques to Increase Compliance	126
Cognitive Techniques to Increase Compliance	127
Examining Advantages and Disadvantages	129
Conducting "Experiments"	133
Eliciting and Responding to
Patients' Automatic Thoughts	135
Giving Self-Credit	136
Positive and Negative Imagery	137
Cognitive Restructuring of Core Beliefs	139
Summary	139
References	139

---

Chapter 6

The Challenges of Split Treatment 143

Michelle B. Riba, M.D., M.S.

Richard Balon, M.D.

Introduction	144
Positive Aspects of Split Treatment	147
Negative Aspects of Split Treatment	152
Toward Successful Split Treatment	158
References	162

---

Afterword 165

Jerald Kay, M.D.