

Contents

Preface	vi
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Theorizing Regime Ends by John Borneman	1
 Chapter 1
From Future to Past: A Duce's Trajectory Maria Pia Di Bella	33
 Chapter 2
Gottvater, Landesvater, Familienvater : Identification and Authority in Germany John Borneman	63
 Chapter 3
Two Deaths of Hirohito in Japan Kyung-Koo Han	104
 Chapter 4
The Undead: Nicolae Ceaușescu and Paternalist Politics in Romanian Society and Culture David A. Kideckel	123
 Chapter 5
The Peaceful Death of Tito and the Violent End of Yugoslavia Tone Bringa	148
 Chapter 6
Doubtful Dead Fathers and Musical Corpses: What to Do with the Dead Stalin, Lenin, and Tsar Nicholas? John S. Schoeberlein	201
Notes on Contributors to the Death of the Father Project	220
Index	222