PREFACE.....	v
---------------------	----------

General Issues

1.DEFENSE MECHANISMS: CURRENT APPROACHES TO RESEARCH AND MEASUREMENT	3
---	----------

Uwe Hentschel, Juris G. Draguns, Wolfram Ehlers and Gudmund Smith

Defense Mechanisms in a Casual Social Contact.....	3
From the Historical Roots of Defense Mechanisms to Contemporary Conceptualizations	4
Defenses: Theoretical, Observational, and Measurement Aspects.....	8
The Full Scope of the Defensive Process.....	12
Coping, Defending, and Cognitive Styles	15
Empirical approaches to the measurement of defenses.....	17
Theoretical and Empirical Implications of Regarding Defense as a Complex Construct.....	26
The Implications of the Complex Model Interpretation of Defense for Further Research	28

2. A CRITICAL PERSPECTIVE ON DEFENSE MECHANISMS.....	43
---	-----------

Paul Kline

Freudian Psychoanalytic Defense Mechanisms	43
The Work of Vaillant and Horowitz.....	46
Conclusions.....	51

3. DEFENSE MECHANISMS IN THE CLINIC, THE LABORATORY, AND THE SOCIAL WORLD: TOWARD CLOSING THE GAPS.....	55
--	-----------

Juris G. Draguns

Introduction: From Clinical Observation to Systematic Research	55
Defense Mechanisms: The Status of the Evidence.....	55
The Context of Defense Mechanisms	59
Defense Mechanisms in the Present: A Variety of Clinically Relevant Results.....	61

Beyond the Clinic: Extensions of Defense Mechanisms into Other Areas of Psychology 62

Unfinished Tasks, Unanswered Questions 65

Unfinished Tasks, New Topics 69

4. WHAT IS A MECHANISM OF DEFENSE? 77

Hans Sjöbäck

5. PERCEPT-GENESIS AND THE STUDY OF DEFENSIVE PROCESSES..... 91

Bert Westerlundh

Microgenesis, Percept-Genesis, and the Theory of Perception 91

Schools and Research Paradigms of Microgenesis 92

The Perceptual Process 93

Parallelisms 94

Determinants of the Percept 95

The Technique of Information Reduction 95

The Theory of Defense..... 97

Modifications of the Classical Theory 97

Percept-Genesis and the Study of Defensive Processes 99

The Defense Mechanism Test..... 99

The Meta-Contrast Technique..... 99

Validity of the Percept-Genetic Approach 100

Percept-Genetic, Projective and Rating Techniques for the Assessment of Defense Mechanisms

6. DEFENSE MECHANISMS AND COGNITIVE STYLES IN PROJECTIVE TECHNIQUES AND OTHER DIAGNOSTIC INSTRUMENTS 107

Falk Leichsenring

Introduction..... 107

The Assessment of Defense Mechanisms 108

The Assessment of Low-Level Defense Mechanisms by Means of the Rorschach and the Holtzman Inkblot Technique 109

Cognitive Style: Avoidance of Ambiguity 117

7. PERCEPT-GENETIC IDENTIFICATION OF DEFENSE..... 129

Gudmund Smith and Uwe Hentschel

The Defense Mechanism Test (DMT)	134
Modifications of the DMT	138
Percept-genetic Object-Relations Test (PORT)	139
New Thematic Innovations Based on the DMT Device	140
The Meta-Contrast Technique (MCT)	141
New Thematic Innovations Based on the MCT Device
The Identity Test (IT)	146
DMT and MCT: A Comparison	147

8. CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE CONSTRUCT VALIDITY OF THE DEFENSE MECHANISM TEST 153

Barbara E. Saitner

Method	154
Results and Discussion	156

9. STUDYING DEFENSE MECHANISMS IN PSYCHOTHERAPY USING THE DEFENSE MECHANISM RATING SCALES 165

J. Christopher Perry and Melissa Henry

Introduction	165
Description of the Defense Mechanism Rating Scales	165
The Selection of Raters	171
Rater Training	172
Methods of Comparing DMRS Defense Scores	174
Important Considerations Regarding Different Data Sources	176
Reliability and Stability of Defense Ratings	180
Recent and Ongoing Research Relevant to Psychotherapy	182
Potential Directions for Studying Defenses in Psychotherapy	186

10. THE MOTIVATIONAL AND COGNITIVE DETERMINANTS OF DEFENSE MECHANISMS 195

Shulamith Kreidler and Hans Kreidler

Introduction	195
The Function of DMs	195
DMs as Cognitive Strategies	196
The Motivational Determinants of Defense Mechanisms	198

The CO Theory 198

Cognitive Determinants of Defense Mechanisms 209

Modifying Defense Mechanisms..... 225

11. REPRESSIVE COPING STYLE AND THE SIGNIFICANCE OF VERBAL-AUTONOMIC RESPONSE DISSOCIATIONS..... 239

Andreas Schwerdtfeger and Carl-Walter Kohlmann

The Repression Construct 239

Multiple Variable Approaches with Traditional Instruments 243

Person-Oriented Approaches..... 245

The Discrepancy Hypothesis..... 249

The One-Dimensional Operationalization of Repression-Sensitization and the Discrepancy Hypothesis 250

Multiple Variable Approaches and Person-Oriented Approaches and the Discrepancy Hypothesis..... 251

Skin Conductance Studies..... 253

Cardiovascular Studies..... 255

Conclusions: What Do the Discrepancies Indicate?..... 258

Verbal-Autonomic Response Dissociation and Health 261

Concluding Remarks..... 264

12. PERCEPTUAL AND EMOTIONAL ASPECTS OF PSYCHOPHYSIOLOGICAL INDIVIDUALITY 279

Fernando Lolas

Classic Notions of Augmenting/Reducing 279

Conceptualizations of the Activity/Reactivity Typology 280

13. A PSYCHODYNAMIC ACTIVATION STUDY OF FEMALE
OEDIPAL FANTASIES USING SUBLIMINAL AND PERCEPT-
GENETIC TECHNIQUES..... 285

Bert Westerlundh

Hypotheses 286

Man Conditions 287

Woman Conditions..... 288

Method 289

Results..... 292

Discussion 298

14. ADAPTATION TO BOREDOM AND STRESS: THE EFFECTS OF DEFENSE MECHANISMS AND CONCEPT FORMATION ON ATTENTIONAL PERFORMANCE IN SITUATIONS WITH INADEQUATE STIMULATION..... 303

Uwe Hentschel, Manfred Kiessling and Arn Hosemann

Introduction	303
Method	306
Results.....	312
Discussion	318

15. STRESS, AUTONOMIC NERVOUS SYSTEM REACTIVITY, AND DEFENSE MECHANISMS 325

Phebe Cramer

Defense Mechanisms and Physiological Reactivity to Stress	325
The Assessment of Defense Mechanisms	327
Defensive Behavior and Autonomic Reaction to Stress: Skin Conductance Level	328
Defensive Behavior and Autonomic Reaction to Stress: CV Reactivity...	329
Defense and Physiological Reactivity	330
Method	332
Results.....	335
Discussion	341

Defense Mechanisms in Psychotherapy and Clinical Research

16. CLINICAL EVALUATION OF STRUCTURE AND PROCESS OF DEFENSE MECHANISMS BEFORE AND DURING PSYCHOANALYTIC TREATMENT 353

Wolfram Ehlers

Introduction.....	353
The Defense Model of Ego Psychology.....	355
The Defense Model in Melanie Klein's Object Relations Theory.....	357
Research Methodology and Logical Definitions of Defense Mechanisms	361

Results of the Structure of Diagnostic Evaluation of Defense
Mechanisms (Part 1) 364
Test of the Model of Ego-Psychology..... 364
Test of the Model of M. Klein’s and O. Kernberg’s Object
Relations Theory 366
Defense Structure as a Determinant of Personality Diagnosis 368
The Process of Defense in Psychoanalytic Treatment (Part 2) 371
Theory and Method of Process Analysis..... 372
Process Development and Identification of Segments for Patient G..... 376
Process Segments of Patient S (low structural level) 380
The Process of Defense for Patients G and S in Constructing Distinctive Defense Models During the Therapy Process..... 386
Conclusions 387

17. THE MEASUREMENT OF EGO DEFENSES IN CLINICAL RESEARCH 393

Hope R. Conte, Robert Plutchik and Juris G. Draguns

Variations in the Concept of Ego Defenses..... 393
The Life Style Index..... 395
The Life Style Index and Clinical Research..... 399
Ego Defenses and Outcome for Hospitalized Schizophrenics 399
Ego Defenses and Outcome of Long-Term Psychotherapy 401
Defense Mechanisms in Relation to Risk of Suicide and Risk of Violence..... 402
Defense Mechanisms and Psychophysiology..... 404
Clinicians' Conceptions of Ego Defenses in Relation to Psychotherapy Outcome..... 405
Translations and Adaptations: International Extensions of the LSI 407
Conclusions and Directions for Future Research 408

18. PATTERNS OF ADAPTATION AND PERCEPT-GENETIC DEFENSES 415

I. Alex Rubino and Alberto Siracusano

Introduction 415
Method 418
Instruments 418
Results 420
Discussion 420

19. INTELLECTUAL PERFORMANCE AND DEFENSE MECHANISMS IN DEPRESSION..... 431

Uwe Hentschel, Manfred Kiessling, Heidi Teubner-Berg and Herbert Dreier

Method	435
The Tests Used: The DMT and the Jastak Test.....	436
Changes in the Original Design of the Study	437
Results.....	440
Clustering on the Basis of the Jastak Test.....	440
Defense in Interaction with Intellectual Performance	441
Discussion	444

20. DEFENSE MECHANISMS AND HOPE AS PROTECTIVE FACTORS IN PHYSICAL AND MENTAL DISORDERS 453

Louis A. Gottschalk, Janny Fronczek and Robert J. Bechtel

Methods and Procedures	456
Measurement of Emotions and Defenses	460
Statistical Procedures	462
Results.....	462
Discussion	469
Summary and Conclusions.....	472

21. DEFENSE MECHANISM AND PHYSICAL HEALTH..... 477

Shulamith Kreitler

Why Expect Defense Mechanisms to Play a Role in the Context of Physical Diseases?.....	477
Assumed Roles of DMs in the Context of Physical Diseases	478
Difficulties in Studying DMs in the Context of Physical Diseases	479
DMs and Specific Physical Disorders.....	480
A study on DMS and Coping in Cancer Patients	493
General Conclusions	501

22. PATIENTS CONFRONTED WITH A LIFE-THREATENING SITUATION: THE IMPORTANCE OF DEFENSE MECHANISMS IN PATIENTS FACING BONE MARROW TRANSPLANTATION. AN EMPIRICAL APPROACH..... 521

Norbert Grulke, Harald Bailer, Heidi Caspari-Oberegelsbacher, Vera Heitz, Alexandra Juchems, Volker Tschuschke and Horst Kächele

Introduction 521

Own Study..... 523

Results..... 525

Discussion 526

Two Prototypical Cases..... 528

A Preliminary Attempt of Evaluating the Meaning of the Two Functions 531

Defense Mechanisms in Psychosomatic Research

23. DEFENSE MECHANISMS, LIFE STYLE, AND HYPERTENSION. 537

Uwe Hentschel and Frits J. Bekker

Introduction 537

Method, Sample and Procedure 540

Measurement of Defense Mechanisms..... 541

Values and Attitudes Towards Health and Illness..... 541

Registration of Life Events 541

Results..... 542

Discussion 547

24. IN DEFENSE OF OBESITY..... 557

Olof Rydén

Obesity - an Expanding Problem 557

The Simple but Unattainable Curing of Obesity 557

Origins of Obesity 558

Eating in Response to Displeasure 561

Eating in Response to Idiosyncratic Motives 562

Psychological Defense: An Alternative to Eating in the Control of Anxiety 562

Psychological Features in Obese Patients Investigated
Before and After Treatment	563
Psychological Correlates of Differential Weight Loss After Treatment ...	570
Conclusions	574

25. AN EXPERIMENTAL STUDY OF SEVERE EATING DISORDERS (ANOREXIA NERVOSA AND BULIMIA NERVOSA)..... 581

Per Johnsson, Gudmund Smith and Gunilla Amnér

Introduction	581
Method	583
The Interview	584
Case Descriptions.....	584
Single and Double Pair-Wise Comparisons	584
The Identity Test (IT).....	585
The Meta-Contrast Technique (MCT)	586
The Creative Functioning Test (CFT).....	587
Reliability of the Tests	587
Tennessee Self Concept Scale (TSCS).....	587
Results.....	588
Discussion	592

26. DEFENSE ORGANIZATIONS AND COPING IN THE COURSE OF CHRONIC DISEASE: A STUDY ON CROHN'S DISEASE 597

Joachim Küchenhoff

The Heidelberg Research Project on Crohn's Disease	597
Results	600
Case Example.....	603
Summary	606

Defense Mechanisms in Neuropsychological context

27. DEFENSE MECHANISMS AND THEIR PSYCHOPHYSIOLOGICAL CORRELATES 611

Uwe Hentschel, Gudmund Smith and Juris G. Draguns

Introduction 611

Neuropsychology, Physiology and Defense Mechanisms:

 Is There an Empirical Link?..... 612

 Coping and Physiological Reactions..... 613

 Empirical Evidence for the Relationship Between

 Defense Mechanisms and Physiological Variables 614

 Neuropsychological Variables and Defense..... 615

 Activation Theory and Defense..... 615

 Lateralization and Defense..... 616

 Other Measures of Central Processes in Relation to Defense 617

 Cardiovascular and Skin Conductance Reactions in Relation to Defenses 619

 Respiration and Defenses 620

 Endocrine Parameters and Defense Mechanisms 622
