Preface	xi
List of Abbreviations and Symbols	xiii
Introduction	xv
Part I. Foundations	1
1 Meaning Representation: Setting the Scene	3
1.1 The semantics/pragmatics merger	3
1.2 Questioning underspecification	12
1.3 Questioning logical form	19
1.4 Questioning what is said	21
1.5 Questioning the middle level of meaning	24
1.6 Representations in rich dynamic semantics	28
1.7 Representations and conscious inference	33
2 Default Meanings	40
2.1 Varieties of defaults	40
2.1.1 Eclectic defaults	40
2.1.2 Rule-governed defaults	44
2.1.3 Jumping to conclusions	46
2.1.4 Contents and sources of defaults	46
2.2 Cognitive defaults	47
2.2.1 Defaults in semantics	47
2.2.2 Intentionality of mental states	48
2.2.3 Degrees of intentions	51
2.3 Cultural and social defaults	53
2.3.1 Physical defaults?	53
2.3.2 Social-cultural defaults	55
2.3.3 Lexical defaults?	58
2.4 Staying on the semantic track	61
2.4.1 Defaults and truth conditions	61
2.4.2 Questioning GCI	63
2.4.3 Questioning cancellation of defaults	65
2.5 Limitations	66

3	Compositionality and Merger Representations	70
3.1	Compositional meaning	70
3.2	Rethinking compositional semantics	73
3.3	Metacompositionality	82
3.4	Foundations of a formal account	85
3.4.1	Truth-conditional semantics and truth-conditional pragmatics	85
3.4.2	Principles of relational semantics	87
3.4.3	Compositionality in dynamic semantics for (i) DRSs and (ii) merger representations	95
3.5	Cognitive principles for merger representations	96
3.5.1	PoL, DI, and PI	96
3.5.2	Semanticization of intentions	97
3.5.3	The inferential end?	98
	Part II. Some Applications	103
4	Defaults for Definite Descriptions	105
4.1	Default referential, non-default referential, and attributive readings	105
4.2	Definite descriptions in merger representations	108
4.3	Definite descriptions, proper names, and indexicals: degrees of referring?	115
5	Default Semantics for Propositional Attitude Reports	120
5.1	Context-dependent substitutivity	120
5.2	Degrees of mode of presentation	125
5.3	Merger representations for belief reports	131
6	Futurity and English will	147
6.1	Futurity and the uses of will : two interrelated problems	147
6.2	The modality of will	149
6.3	Future as modality	155
6.4	The analysis	157
6.4.1	Tense-free futurity?	157
6.4.2	The Acc operator	159
6.4.3	The application of Acc	162
6.5	Conclusions	174
6.6	Temporality as modality: some open questions and further extensions	175

7	Default Semantics for Presupposition as Anaphora	187
7.1	Binding and accommodation	187
7.2	Genuine ambiguity of partial matches?	189
7.3	Presupposition and focus	192
7.4	Other principles for selecting anaphors	193
7.5	Scales and defaults for presuppositional anaphors	196
7.6	Summary	202
8	The Myth of Sentential Connectives?	205
8.1	The optimist's approach to sentential connectives and the Gricean legacy	205
8.1.1	Irregular and	205
8.1.2	Or and no more	209
8.1.3	Freedom of denial	212
8.1.4	The imperfect conditional perfection	216
8.2	Summary: the unitary DS account	218
8.3	Future projections	219
9	Default Semantics for Number Terms	222
9.1	Number terms and number concepts	222
9.2	Exact value, 'absolute value', and default use	225
9.3	Merger representations for CD and CPI 1 readings of cardinal number terms	230
9.4	Summary and further directions	234
10	Concluding Remarks and Future Prospects	239
10.1	'Pragmatic' truth conditions and dynamic 'semantics'	239
10.2	The scope of Default Semantics	241
	References	243
	Index	261
