

Contents

List of Figures and Boxes	viii
Prologue	xii
Acknowledgements	xiv
List of Acronyms and Abbreviations	xvi
1 Introduction	1
Ecotourism: The chameleon industry	2
Ecotourism: Global toolbox for community relief?	6
Indigenous Peoples in the ecotourism equation	11
Getting real about ecotourism	14
Ecotourism lessons	16
Conclusion	21
2 Land Rights	24
The politics of land rights	25
Untangling the myths	29
Getting the facts	32
Poverty alleviation through ecotourism	36
Integrating land rights	42
Getting beyond greed	46
Conclusion	48
3 Self-Determination of Indigenous Peoples	52
Indigenous Peoples' encounters with industry	53
New directions for corporate ecotourism	56
Who are Indigenous Peoples?	61
Globalization of the sacred	64
Market madness	67
Development ideology	70
Indigenous concepts of development	72
Conclusion	76

4 Intellectual Property	84
The transformative power of travel	85
Culture as commodity	86
Reframing impacts	90
Goods and services	92
Common fire-fighting issues	96
Reconnaissance at the frontline	105
Conclusion	108
5 Sacred Sites	112
The sacred in every day	113
New cross-cultural issues in tourism	117
Collisions of conscience	123
Sacred site sensations	127
Conclusion	132
6 Protected Areas	136
Behind the veil	137
Economic master plan	139
Indigenous Peoples break queue	146
Government protection or perversion?	152
Reprogramming for dialogue	158
Conclusion	160
7 Partnerships	164
Industry psychology	165
Partnership etiquette	167
Fundamentals for change	171
Consultants: The identity crisis	175
NGOs: Ethics in action	177
Internal deal brokers	184
Mundo Maya : Behind the mask	186
Conclusion	192
8 Accommodating Indigenous Rights	196
Consultation	197
The stakeholder approach	202
Consultation with integrity	205
Getting there	209
Negotiations	213
Relationship-building	219
Conclusion	222

9 Sustainable Tourism	226
Biodiversity	228
Impact assessment	233
Standard-setting	238
Institutional and professional frameworks	242
Beliefs and interpretation	249
Conclusion	252
 10 United Nations	 260
Charting our humanity	261
Checking our pulse	263
UN Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD)	264
Time for an overhaul	278
Conclusion	283
 Appendices	 286
Notes	303
References	336
Index	374

List of Figures and Boxes

Figures

1.1	Market at Pisac, Peru: A tourist favourite for telephoto adventures	23
1.2	Market at Pisac, Peru: Tourists zoom in on ‘culture’ for pennies per picture	23
2.1	Two visions of Earth stewardship: Indigenous or industrial	50
2.2	Aboriginal Tent Embassy in Canberra, Australia: The real story of colonialism	51
2.3	Remembrance sign erected on island of Moloka, Hawai’i	51
3.1	Two visions for ‘development’: Indigenous or industrial	79
3.2	Questions to ask: Discerning the situation of Indigenous Peoples	81
3.3	How to spot a fake: Discerning between tourism facts and fairytales	82
3.4	Advertisement of ‘exotic’ cultures at tourist museum at Melaka, Malaysia	83
3.5	Flag hung by sacred fire at Aboriginal Tent Embassy in Canberra, Australia: Genocide is a crime	83
4.1	‘House of Visual Knowledge’ in Maasai village, Kenya, for the repatriation of history	111
4.2	Quichua tribe presents its own cultural offerings, Ecuador	111
5.1	Aboriginal Peoples call for humility and connection, Australia	135

5.2	The Tutchore protect their burial ground, Canada	135
6.1	Chang Mai Night Safari, Thailand: Dignitaries and park staff dress up as North American 'Indian Chiefs' for opening ceremony	162
6.2	Billboard protesting uranium mining in Kakadu National Park, Australia	163
6.3	Sutikalh Protection Area, St'at'imc Territory, Canada: Banner opposing industrial-style development	163
7.1	Building new corporate relationships	170
7.2	The 'Wooden Indian' who shows up in tourist quarters worldwide to meet and greet tourists	195
7.3	Brawny 'Indian Chief' welcomes tourists to the Amsterdam flower market, The Netherlands	195
8.1	Relationship building: Sacred principles for reconnection	221
8.2	Sign beckoning tourists to commercialized Kava ceremony in Nadi, Fiji	225
8.3	Bare breasted statue lures tourists to souvenir shop in Coral Coast, Fiji	225
9.1	Sustainability checklist: Tourism and biodiversity conservation in Indigenous territories	254
9.2	Alarm bells for culture loss: What community feelings say about tourism	254
9.3	Questions to ask: Discerning the truth about 'eco' tourism	254
9.4	How to evaluate local tourism benefits: Indicators for sustainable 'eco' tourism in Indigenous territories	256
9.5	Rights and responsibilities	258
9.6	Porter at Panama City Airport, Panama: Summing up the colonial reality of tourism	259

Boxes

1.1	Indigenous Peoples get ready	4
1.2	Armchair travellers	5
1.3	Extreme anthropology	7
1.4	Philanthropy at what cost?	9
1.5	Setting the pace in Laos	11
1.6	Colonizers host European tourists	13
1.7	Racing to the four corners	17
1.8	Survivor affects survival	19
2.1	Cashing in on Indigenous lands	25
2.2	Ecotourism: Heaven sent?	33

2.3	Indigenous Peoples: The losers amongst generic poor	38
2.4	Land rights at world ecotourism destinations	41
2.5	Sacred trusts	46
2.6	'War on terror' underwrites corporations and our consumer lifestyle	48
3.1	Bankrolling the pioneers	54
3.2	Advertising monopoly	56
3.3	Extinction profitable	57
3.4	Rights and wrongs	60
3.5	The New World Order	62
3.6	Churches groom flocks for 'development'	67
3.7	Skeletons in our closet	69
3.8	Kuna chiefs say no to conventional development	72
3.9	Dare to know Nepal	74
3.10	Indigenous Peoples speak out	76
4.1	Spa tourism: Healing what?	88
4.2	'Wanna Be' Indians	92
4.3	Illicit highs and lows	98
4.4	Protection of ceremonies	100
4.5	The Indiana Jones brigade	103
4.6	Cultural sustainability	108
5.1	Shangri-la	114
5.2	Mythical New Mexico	117
5.3	Sacred sites: Navel of the Earth	118
5.4	Akoo-Yet (Mount Shasta)	119
5.5	World heritage or sacred unity?	122
5.6	The Machu Picchu mess	128
5.7	The Dineh teachings	132
6.1	Conservation logic	137
6.2	Blue Book blues	142
6.3	'Ego' tourism to Indigenous lands	143
6.4	Community conservation areas: Safety valve for whom?	145
6.5	Coercive conservation	147
6.6	Privatization of peoples	148
6.7	Amazon outrage	150
6.8	The final parks depravity	152
6.9	U'wa wake-up call	159
7.1	Indian giving	173
7.2	The partnership hot seat	179
7.3	World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF-International) says whoops!	180
7.4	Real partnerships	183

List of Figures

7.5	Reason to blush	189
7.6	Proper protocol	191
8.1	The self-government mirage	197
8.2	False consultation	199
8.3	Perspective from 'paradise'	202
8.4	Consultation shortcuts	205
8.5	Manipulation through NGOs	207
8.6	Peoples versus communities	209
8.7	Shake the shackles	212
8.8	Invitation to the Corporate Box	217
9.1	Tacky tourism: Whose idea is it anyway?	227
9.2	Corporations: Our concierge for the final journey	229
9.3	Biodiversity conservation: 'Eco-'imperialism in Indigenous territories	232
9.4	The ecotourism industry: Gasping for air	234
9.5	The industrial way: 'Progress' through social decay	237
9.6	Air travel: Altitude sickness for one and all	241
9.7	Climate change: Odd bedfellow of 'eco' tourism	245
9.8	Sustainable tourism: Current industry standards	248
9.9	Hopi discipline	251
10.1	UN Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD) lacks Indigenous Peoples' representation	264
10.2	International Indigenous Forum on Biodiversity (IIFB): Protecting or negotiating away sacred lands and sacred knowledge?	266
10.3	Akwé:kon Guidelines : Micro-managing the sacred	267
10.4	World Commission on Protected Areas (WCPA) Tourism Task Force: Called to task	270
10.5	Foreign policy manoeuvres	273
10.6	United Nations Draft Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous People : An expensive show	276
10.7	Cultural diversity or genocide?	279
10.8	The United Nations: House of cards	281
10.9	Sacred not for sale	283