

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Notes on Contributors	viii
1 English Law in Shakespeare's Plays Constance Jordan and Karen Cunningham	1
2 Drama, Law, and Rhetoric in the Age of Coke and Shakespeare Allen D. Boyer	20
3 The Wilde Side of Justice in Early Modern England and Titus Andronicus Dympna Callaghan and Chris R. Kyle	38
4 "Like to a Tenement": Landholding, Leasing, and Inheritance in Richard II William O. Scott	58
5 Cast out of Eden: Property and Inheritance in Shakespearean Drama Nancy E. Wright and A. R. Buck	73
6 Avoiding the Issue of Fraud: 4, 5 Philip & Mary c.8 (the Heiress Protection Statute), Portia, and Desdemona Charles Ross	91
7 Accomplished with What She Lacks: Law, Equity, and Portia's Con Thomas C. Bilello	109
8 Drama and Marine Insurance in Shakespeare's London Luke Wilson	127
9 Noises Off: Participatory Justice in 2 Henry VI Lorna Hutson	143
10 Truth, Lies, and the Law of Slander in Much Ado About Nothing Cyndia Susan Clegg	167

11	The "Amending Hand": Hales v. Petit , Eyston v. Studd , and Equitable Action in Hamlet Carolyn Sale	189
12	Macbeth : Absolutism, the Ancient Constitution, and the Aporia of Politics Peter C. Herman	208
13	Arms and Laws in Shakespeare's Coriolanus Rebecca Lemon	233
14	Measure for Measure and the Law of Nature Elizabeth Hanson	249
	Index	266