
Contents

Foreword
Carol E. Henderson	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii

Introduction. Reconciling the Spirit: The Father, the Son, and Go Tell It on the Mountain
Carol E. Henderson	1

Part One: National Ideals and Political Agendas

Chapter One. Duplicity, Purity, and Politicized Morality: Go Tell It on the Mountain and the Emergence of the Civil Rights Movement
Brian J. Norman	13

Chapter Two. Go Tell It on the Mountain and Cold War Tropes of National Belonging: Homoerotic Desire and the Redeployment of Betrayal under Black Nationalism
William J. Spurlin	29

Chapter Three. African Retentions in Go Tell It on the Mountain
Babacar M'Baye	41

Part Two: The Politics of Sexuality, Race and Gender

Chapter Four. Race, Religion and Sexuality in Go Tell It on the Mountain
Csaba Csapó	57

Chapter Five. The Reclamation of the Homoerotic as Spiritual in Go Tell It on the Mountain Margo Natalie Crawford	75
Chapter Six. Betwixt and Between the Cross: The "Eve" Complex in Baldwin's Go Tell It on the Mountain Carol E. Henderson	87
Part Three: Paradigmatic Shifts and Cultural Inventions
Chapter Seven. Sacred and Silent (Man)ufacturing: Melancholy, Race and the Gendered Politics of Testifying in James Baldwin's Go Tell It on the Mountain Jermaine Singleton	105
Chapter Eight. 'Terrors of the Night': Salvation, Gender, and the Gothic in Go Tell It on the Mountain Sherry R. Truffin	123
Chapter Nine. Layed Bare: The Filmic Representation of Go Tell It on the Mountain Carol E. Henderson	139
Afterword. James Baldwin Now: Selected Bibliography of Scholarship and Criticism on Baldwin's Go Tell It on the Mountain Carol E. Henderson	147
Contributors	155
Index	159