

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Prologue
The Promise of the Twentieth Century	1
Introduction
A Topic Whose Time Has Come	3
PART I: SETTING THE STAGE
Chapter 1
The Three Concepts of Inequality Defined	7
Chapter 2
Other Differences between the Concepts	12
Chapter 3
International and World Inequality Compared	20
PART II: INEQUALITY AMONG COUNTRIES
Chapter 4
Rising Differences in Per Capita Incomes	31
Chapter 5
Regional Convergence, Divergence, or . . . “Vergence”	45
Chapter 6
The Shape of International GDP Per Capita Distribution	51
Chapter 7
Winners and Losers: Increasing Dominance of the West	61
PART III: GLOBAL INEQUALITY
Chapter 8
Concept 2 Inequality: Decreasing in the Past Twenty Years	85
Chapter 9
High Global Inequality: No Trend?	101
Chapter 10
A World without a Middle Class	128

PART IV: CONCLUDING COMMENTSChapter 11

The Three Concepts of Inequality in Historical Perspective 139

Chapter 12

Why Does Global Inequality Matter and What to Do about It? 149

Appendixes 1–7 163

Notes 195

References 213

Index of Authors 223

Index of Subjects 225