

Contents

Introduction	ix
Karen Bassi and J. Peter Euben
Acknowledgments	xxiii
Part I: Classics
1 Origins, Culture, and Identity in Classical Antiquity	3
Carla Antonaccio
2 Greece of the East: Philhellenism in Imperial Japan	19
Noriko Aso
3 Philhellenism, Cosmopolitanism, Nationalism	43
Glenn W. Most
4 The Materiality of Classical Studies	61
James I. Porter
Part II: Politics
5 Making Prometheus Speak: Dialogue, Torture, and the Power of Secrets in Prometheus Bound	77
Karen Bassi
6 For Love of the Impossible: Antigone , Memory, and the Politics of Possibility	111
P. J. Brendese
7 Athens' Tale of Two Cities: Themistocles, Theseus, and the Construction of "Place" in Fifth-Century Athens	137
Carol Dougherty

8	Thucydides in Baghdad J. Peter Euben	161
9	Before Race: Theorizing Athenian Citizen Identity Susan Lape	185
10	Comedy, the Ordinary Citizen, and the Salvation of the City John Zumbrennen	229
Part III: Culture
11	Gender and the City: Antigone from Hegel to Butler and Back Peter Burian	255
12	The Comparative Politics of Travel: Theôria, Talab al-‘Ilm and the Search for Knowledge Roxanne L. Euben	301
13	Socrates, Palamedes, and the Trials of Philosophy Diskin Clay	331
14	Body, Soul, and Medical Analogy in Plato Brooke Holmes	345
15	“Men completely wild in appearance and way of life: Fauns, Satyrs, Androgynes, Ichthyophages, Hippopodes, Sciopodes, Himantipodes, [and] Cyclopes” Vanita Seth	387
16	Suppliant Women and the Democratic State: White Men Saving Brown Women from Brown Men Victoria Wohl	409
	Index	437
	About the Contributors	459