CONTENTS

List of Figures ix

Preface xi

Don Handelman

After Understanding: A Memoir of Galina Lindquist xv

Michael Jackson

Religion, Politics, and Globalization: The Long Past Foregrounding the Short Present—Prologue and Introduction 1

Don Handelman and Galina Lindquist

I. Shaping Religion Through Politics

1. Ethnic Identity and Religious Competition: Buddhism and Shamanism in Southern Siberia 69

Galina Lindquist

2. The Global Constitution of Religious Nationalism: Hindutva and Globalization 91

Henrik Berglund

II. Open Conflicts Between Religion and Politics

3. Church Confronts State: The 2005 Manifestasauen in Timor-Leste 117

David Hicks

4. Religion, Secularism, and Politics in Contemporary Spain: The Case of the Imam of Fuengirola 144

Eva Evers Rosander
III. The Tight Embrace of Religion and Politics

5. Actors of History? Religion, Politics, and “Reality” within the Protestant Right in America 171
   Simon Coleman

6. The Ambiguities of Islamism and a Century of Iranian Opposition 189
   David Thurfiell

IV. Opening New Space for Religion

7. Amazighité, Arab/Islamic Hegemony, and the Christian Evangelical Challenge 209
   Mira Z. Amiras

8. Self-Exploders, Self-Sacrifice, and the Rhizomic Organization of Terrorism 231
   Don Handelman

   Afterword: Fixation of Belief and the Dilemmas of Fallibility 263
   Robert E. Innis

Notes on Contributors 276
Index 278