Contents

List of Contributors xv

Part I Poetry and the Revival

1. Recovering Ancient Ireland
   Matthew Campbell 3

2. Yeats and Symbolism
   Warwick Gould 20

3. Yeats, Clarke, and the Irish Poet’s Relationship with English
   Michael O’Neill 42

Part II The Poetry of War

4. ‘The Roses are Torn’: Ireland’s War Poets
   Jim Haughey 61

5. ‘Pledged to Ireland’: The Poets and Poems of Easter 1916
   Gerald Dawe 79

6. W. B. Yeats: Poetry and Violence
   Edna Longley 95

Part III Modernism and Traditionalism

   Edward Larrissy 113

8. Irish Poetic Modernism: Portrait of the Artist in Exile
   Susan Schreibman 130

9. Samuel Beckett: Exile and Experiment
   David Wheatley 145
PART IV MID-CENTURY IRISH POETRY

11. Patrick Kavanagh's 'Potentialities' 181
   Kit Fryatt

12. MacNeice Among His Irish Contemporaries: 1939 and 1945 196
   Tom Walker

13. The Poetics of Partition: Poetry and Northern Ireland in the 1940s 210
   Richard Kirkland

   John McAuliffe

15. Memory and Starlight in Late MacNeice 240
   Jonathan Allison

PART V POETRY AND THE ARTS

   Neil Corcoran

17. Poetry, Music, and Reproduced Sound 266
   Damien Keane

18. 'Private Relations': Selves, Poems, and Paintings—Durcan to Morrissey 282
   Rui Carvalho Homem

19. Contemporary Northern Irish Poetry and Romanticism 297
   Peter Mackay

PART VI ON THE BORDERS: A FURTHER LOOK AT THE LANGUAGE QUESTION

20. 'Ghosts of metrical procedures': Translations from the Irish 311
   Aodán Mac Póilín
21. Translation as Collaboration: Ni Dhomhnaill and Muldoon
   Eric Falci
   328

22. Incoming: Irish Poetry and Translation
   Justin Quinn
   341

23. A Stylistic Analysis of Modern Irish Poetry
   Paul Simpson
   355

PART VII POETRY AND POLITICS:
THE 1970s AND 1980s

24. Befitting Emblems: The Early 1970s
   Heather Clark
   373

25. 'Neurosis of Sand': Authority, Memory, and the Hunger Strike
   Shane Alcobia-Murphy
   387

26. Engagements with the Public Sphere in the Poetry of
   Paul Durcan and Brendan Kennelly
   John Redmond
   403

27. Domestic Violences: Medbh McGuckian and Irish Women's Writing in the 1980s
   Leontia Flynn
   419

PART VIII CULTURAL LANDSCAPES

28. Catholic Art and Culture: Clarke to Heaney
   Gail McConnell
   437

29. In Belfast
   Elmer Kennedy-Andrews
   456

30. 'Our Lost Lives': Protestantism and Northern Irish Poetry
   Peter McDonald
   473

31. Walking Dublin: Contemporary Irish Poets in the City
   Maria Johnston
   492
PART IX THE POET AS CRITIC

32. The Irish Poet as Critic
   Hugh Haughton

33. The Poet as Anthologist
   Steven Matthews

34. Irish Poetry and the News
   Jahan Ramazani

PART X ON POETIC FORM

35. The Modern Irish Sonnet
   Alan Gillis

36. Irish Elegy After Yeats
   Stephen Regan

37. ‘Repeat the changes change the repeats’: Alternative Irish Poetry
   John Goodby

38. ‘The nothing-could-be-simpler line’: Form in Contemporary Irish Poetry
   Fran Brearton

PART XI ON RECENT POETRY

   Catriona Clutterbuck

40. ‘A potted peace/lily’? Northern Irish Poetry Since the Ceasefires
   Miriam Gamble

Select Bibliography

Index