

Detailed contents

Part 1 Understanding crime and criminology

1 Understanding crime and criminology	3	Victimisation surveys	56
What is criminology?	4	The Crime Survey for England and Wales	56
An interdisciplinary subject	5	Local crime surveys	60
Defining criminology	5	Other victimisation surveys	61
Understanding crime	6	Assessing victimisation surveys	62
Crime and the criminal law	8	Comparing official statistics and victimisation surveys	63
Crime as a social construct	8	Crime trends	64
Historical variation	9	Data on offenders	71
Criminology in Britain	11	Self-report studies	72
Further reading	13	Assessing the self-report method	73
		Questions for further discussion	74
		Further reading	75
		Websites	75
2 Crime and punishment in history	15	4 Crime and the media	77
Introduction	16	Introduction	78
Emergence of a modern criminal justice system	16	Academic study of the media	79
Policing	17	Media representations of crime	79
The 'new police'	19	Newsworthiness	79
Resistance and reform	20	The crime content in the media	80
Into the twentieth century	23	Violent crime in the news	81
The victim and prosecution	24	Are the media criminogenic?	84
Formalisation of the prosecution process	24	Media effects	87
The courts	26	Media and fear of crime	88
Decline of the profit motive	27	Moral panics	89
Punishment	29	Mods and rockers	91
Capital punishment	29	Drug use and deviancy amplification	92
Transportation	31	Mugging	94
Imprisonment	32	Criticisms of moral panic theory	95
Probation	35	Policing and the media	96
Crime and violence in history	37	The relationship between the police and the media	96
Levels of crime	37	The representation of policing	98
Perceptions of crime	38	Crime and the internet	101
Questions for further discussion	41	Policing cybercrime	103
Further reading	41	Representing terror	103
Websites	41	Questions for further discussion	105
		Further reading	105
		Websites	105
3 Crime data and crime trends	43	5 The politics of crime and its control	107
Introduction	44	Introduction	108
Measuring crime	45	The advent of 'penal welfarism'	108
Official statistics	45	End of the first bipartisan consensus	109
England and Wales: Criminal Statistics	46	Managerialism	110
United States: Uniform Crime Reports	46	Centralisation	110
Assessing official statistics	47	The politics of crime and punishment in the USA	111
Impact of legislation	49
Understanding 'attrition'	50
Limitations of official statistics	54

The 'war on drugs'	111	Differential association	163
Willie Horton and Michael Dukakis	114	Operant learning	164
Penal populism in the UK	115	Social learning theory	165
Coalition and post-Coalition politics	118	Rational choice	168
Conclusion	119	Routine activity theory	169
Questions for further discussion	120	Cognitive theories	170
Further reading	120	Yochelson and Samenow	170
Websites	120	Piaget, Kohlberg, moral development and offending	171
Part 2 Understanding crime: theories and concepts	121	Eysenck's biosocial theory	173
6 Classicism and positivism	123	Intelligence and offending	176
Introduction	124	Assessing psychological positivism	178
Classical criminology	124	Questions for further discussion	178
Beccaria	126	Further reading	179
Jeremy Bentham	126	Websites	179
The impact of classicism	128	9 Durkheim, anomie and strain	181
Positivism and criminology	130	Introduction	182
Defining positivism	131	Durkheim and criminology	182
Cesare Lombroso	133	Durkheim and social change	183
Ferri and Garofalo	135	Durkheim, suicide and anomie	185
Charles Goring	137	Assessing Durkheim	186
Somatyping	137	Merton and anomie	187
The impact of positivism	139	Anomie and the 'American dream'	188
Questions for further discussion	139	Assessing Merton's anomie theory	190
Further reading	140	Later strain theory	192
Websites	140	Cloward and Ohlin	192
7 Biological positivism	143	General strain theory	192
Introduction	144	Messner and Rosenfeld	195
Genetic factors	144	Assessing strain theory	196
Eugenics and 'feeble-mindedness'	145	Questions for further discussion	197
Twin studies	147	Further reading	197
Adoption	148	Websites	197
Chromosomal anomalies	149	10 The Chicago School, subcultures and cultural criminology	199
Genetics and offending	149	Introduction	200
Biochemical factors	150	The Chicago School	200
Central nervous system	150	Social ecology	202
ADHD and brain dysfunction	151	Chicago School and crime	202
Neurotransmitters	152	The zonal hypothesis	203
Laterality	152	Shaw and McKay: cultural transmission	204
Autonomic nervous system	153	Chicago Area Project	205
Hormones/testosterone	153	Differential association	205
Nutrition	154	Differential reinforcement	206
Assessing biological positivism	155	Assessing the Chicago School	207
Questions for further discussion	156	Cultures and subcultures	208
Further reading	156	Albert Cohen	209
Websites	156	Cloward and Ohlin	210
8 Psychological positivism	159	David Matza	211
Introduction	160	Subcultural theory	211
Psychoanalysis and crime	161	American subcultural theory	212
Bowlby and 'maternal deprivation'	162	British subcultural theory	213
Learning theories	163	Assessing subcultural theory	217

Cultural criminology	219	Radical criminology in Britain	273
Crime as culture	221	The new criminology	273
Culture as crime	221	Contemporary radical criminology	275
Media dynamics of crime and control	221	Zemology and social harm	276
A critique of cultural criminology	222	Assessing radical criminology	277
Questions for further discussion	224	Teleology	277
Further reading	224	Determinism	277
Websites	224	Idealism	278
		Questions for further discussion	278
		Further reading	278
		Websites	279
11 Interactionism and labelling theory	227
Introduction	228	14 Realist criminology	281
The emergence of labelling theory	231	Introduction	282
Primary and secondary deviance	231	Left realism	282
Becker's outsiders	232	The critique of 'left idealism'	283
Moral entrepreneurship	232	The nature of left realism	284
'Becoming a marijuana user'	234	What Is To Be Done about Law & Order?	285
Stigma	235	Left realism and method	285
Self-fulfilling prophecy	236	Assessing left realism	286
Deviancy amplification	236	Right realism	288
Folk Devils and Moral Panics	236	Thinking about Crime	288
Braithwaite and 'shaming'	238	Distinguishing left and right realism	289
Assessing labelling theory	239	Wilson and Herrnstein	290
Questions for further discussion	242	Murray and the 'underclass'	291
Further reading	242	Assessing right realism	293
Websites	242	Questions for further discussion	294
		Further reading	294
		Websites	295
12 Control theories	245
Introduction	246	15 Contemporary classicism	297
Reckless's containment theory	247	Introduction	298
Inner containment	248	Rational choice theory	299
Neutralisation and drift theory	248	Clarke and Cornish	299
Drift	249	Bounded rationality	300
Social bond theory	249	Crime scripts	301
Four elements of the social bond	250	Routine activity theory	304
Testing social bond theory	252	Routine activity and crime trends	305
Gottfredson and Hirschi's general theory of crime	253	Routine activity theory elaborated	306
Low self-control	253	Situational crime prevention	308
Assessing the general theory of crime	255	Defensible space and problem-oriented policing	309
Tittle's control-balance theory	256	Problem-oriented policing	310
Relating control-balance to crime	257	Crime and opportunity	310
Assessing control theory	259	Crime science	312
Questions for further discussion	260	Assessing contemporary classicism	314
Further reading	261	Questions for further discussion	316
		Further reading	316
		Websites	316
13 Radical and critical criminology	263
Introduction	264	16 Feminist criminology	319
Crime and the underdog	264	Introduction	320
Marx and Marxism	265	Early criminology and the female offender	320
Willem Bongers	266	Lombroso and Ferrero	321
American radicalism	268	W.I. Thomas and Otto Pollak	322
Vold and criminalisation	268
Austin Turk	268
William Chambliss	269
From conflict to peacemaking	271

Sociological criminology and the continued invisibility of women	323	Radical victimology	371
Development of modern feminist criminology	325	Critical victimology	371
Female emancipation and crime	325	The nature of victimisation	372
Carol Smart and feminist criminology	326	The extent of victimisation	372
Contemporary feminist criminology	328	Repeat victimisation	373
Understanding women's involvement in crime	329	Victimisation and the vulnerable	375
Women, prison and punishment	331	Victimisation and the homeless	375
The nature of women's imprisonment	331	Victimisation and the elderly	376
Criminalisation of women	333	The impact of victimisation	378
A feminist methodology?	333	Physical impact	378
Feminist victimology	334	Behavioural impact	378
Assessing feminist criminology	335	Emotional and psychological impact	378
Questions for further discussion	337	Financial impact	379
Further reading	337	Fear of crime	379
Websites	338	Victims policy	383
		Criminal injuries compensation	383
		Court-ordered compensation	384
		Feminism and 'secondary victimisation'	384
		Child abuse	386
		Victim Support	388
		Victims' rights?	389
		One-stop shop and victim statements	390
		Victim personal statements	390
		Rebalancing the criminal justice system?	391
		Questions for further discussion	393
		Further reading	394
		Websites	394
17 Late modernity, governmentality and risk	341
The transition to late modernity	342	19 White-collar and corporate crime	397
Surveillance	342	Introduction	398
Changes in property relations	343	Edwin Sutherland and white-collar crime	399
A new regulatory state?	344	Distinguishing between white-collar and corporate crime	402
Foucault and governmentality	345	Exploring white-collar crime	403
Discipline and Punish	346	Theft at work	404
Governmentality theory	347	Fraud	405
The dispersal of discipline	349	Employment offences	406
The discipline of Disney World	350	Consumer offences	407
Risk and the new culture of control	351	Food offences	407
Garland and The Culture of Control	352	Environmental crime	409
Risk, crime and criminal justice	355	State-corporate crime	409
Assessing governmentality, the new penology and risk	357	Explaining white-collar and corporate crime	410
Governmentality	358	Differential association	410
The new penology	359	Self-control	411
Risk	359	Neutralisation	411
Questions for further discussion	360	Critical theory	412
Further reading	360	Shaming	413
Websites	361	Understanding white-collar crime	413
		White-collar offenders	414
Part 3 Understanding crime: types and trends	363
18 Victims, victimisation and victimology	365
Understanding victims and victimology	366
The victim of crime	366
The emergence of victimology	368
Victim-precipitation	369
Victim-blaming	370
Approaches to victimology	370
Positivist victimology	370

Victims of white-collar crime	416	Trends in violent crime	484
The extent of white-collar crime	419	Contemporary trends	486
The impact of white-collar crime	420	Riots	486
Understanding impact: the qualitative dimension	422	Hate crime	490
Controlling white-collar crime	423	The emergence of 'hate crime'	491
Regulating white-collar crime	426	Extent of hate crime and the criminal justice response	493
Self-regulation	427	What is the motivation behind hate crime?	495
Questions for further discussion	429	Why hate crime?	496
Further reading	429	Property crime	498
Websites	429	Trends in property crime	499
20 Organised crime	431	Burglary	500
Defining organised crime	432	Trends in burglary	500
Traditional forms of organised crime	434	Distraction burglary	501
The Mafia	434	Burglars on burglary	502
Triads	435	Crimes against retail and manufacturing premises	503
The Yakuza	435	Car crime	505
Organised crime in America	435	Injuries and deaths on the road	505
The organisation of organised crime	438	Measuring car crime	506
An alien conspiracy theory	439	Joyriding	507
The ethnic succession thesis	439	Thinking about violent and volume crime	508
How organised was American organised crime?	440	Questions for further discussion	509
Organised crime in Britain	443	Further reading	509
Transnational organised crime	446	Websites	510
Human trafficking and migrant smuggling	447	22 Drugs and alcohol	513
Drug trafficking	451	Introduction	514
Transnational crime control	455	What are drugs?	515
Transnational policing	456	Changing official attitudes toward drugs	516
Europol	456	Who uses drugs?	520
Understanding organised crime	457	Trends in drug use	522
Questions for further discussion	459	The normalisation debate	523
Further reading	459	Drugs and crime	524
Websites	460	Drug use causes crime	525
21 Violent and property crime	463	Crime causes drug use	526
Understanding violent crime	464	A common cause?	526
Types of violent crime	465	A reciprocal relationship?	527
Homicide	465	No causal relationship?	527
Trends in homicide	466	Drugs and criminal justice	527
Homicide offenders	467	Drug testing	528
Victims of homicide	469	Drugs and policing	529
Motive and relationship	470	Alcohol	534
Use of weapons	470	Patterns of consumption	534
Homicide and social status	470	Young people and alcohol	536
Serial killers	472	Young people, alcohol and moral panic	539
Robbery	474	Alcohol, crime and criminal justice	539
Armed robbery	474	The legal situation	539
Street robbery	477	Alcohol and crime	540
Sexual offences	479	Costs of alcohol misuse and alcohol-related crime	542
Stalking	481	Government alcohol policy	543
Monitoring sex offenders	481
Violent crime and weapons	482

Drugs, alcohol and crime	545	Volunteers in the criminal justice system	582
Questions for further discussion	546	Criminal justice in Scotland	582
Further reading	546	Is it really a system?	583
Websites	546	The criminal justice process	584
		Fixed penalty notices	586
		Expenditure and employment	587
Part 4 Understanding criminal justice	547	Management and oversight in criminal justice	588
23 Penology and punishment	549	New public management	588
What is punishment?	550	Youth Justice Board	588
Utilitarian or consequentialist approaches	552	Inspectorates	589
Deterrence	552	Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary for England, Wales and Northern Ireland (HMIC)	589
General deterrence	552	Her Majesty's Crown Prosecution Service Inspectorate (HMCPSI)	589
Individual deterrence	553	Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Prisons for England and Wales (HMIP)	590
Rehabilitation	554	Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Probation for England and Wales (HMI Probation)	590
Incapacitation	555	Prisons and Probation Ombudsman	590
Retributivism	558	Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC)	590
Just deserts	559	Politics and criminal justice reform	591
The sociology of punishment	561	Understanding criminal justice	592
Émile Durkheim	562	Adversarial versus inquisitorial systems	592
Max Weber	563	Due process versus crime control	594
Marxism	564	Questions for further discussion	596
Norbert Elias	565	Further reading	596
Michel Foucault	567	Websites	596
The impact of Foucault	568
Conclusion: an era of mass incarceration?	569
Questions for further discussion	571
Further reading	572
Websites	572
24 Understanding criminal justice	575	25 Crime prevention and community safety	599
Government and criminal justice	576	Defining crime prevention	600
Home Office	576	Crime prevention as a policy issue	600
Home Secretary	577	'Five Towns' and 'Safer Cities'	601
Ministry of Justice	578	Neighbourhood Watch	602
Attorney General's Office	579	From crime prevention to community safety	603
The criminal justice system	579	Crime and Disorder Act 1998	604
Major agencies, organisations and actors	579	From community safety to crime reduction	606
The police	579	Reviewing the Crime and Disorder Act	608
Crown Prosecution Service (CPS)	579	Anti-social behaviour	609
Probation	580	'Broken Windows'	610
Youth Offending Teams	580	The anti-social behaviour and respect agendas	611
Prisons	580	Crime prevention in practice	615
Criminal courts	580	Situational crime prevention	615
Criminal Cases Review Commission (CCRC)	581	Displacement	619
Community Safety Partnerships (CSPs)	581	Social and community crime prevention	620
Criminal Injuries Compensation Authority (CICA)	581	Criminality prevention	620
Forensic Science Service (FSS)	582	Risk-focused prevention	621
Parole Board	582

The Perry Pre-School Project	621	Magistrates' courts	682
Cognitive-behavioural interventions with young people	622	The magistracy	683
Community approaches and prevention	622	The Crown Court	684
Operation Ceasefire	622	The judiciary	684
Mentoring	624	Juries	685
Analysis for crime prevention	626	Pre-trial decisions	686
Hot spots	626	Bail and remand	687
Repeat victimisation	626	Bail	687
Kirkholt Burglary Prevention Project	629	Remand	688
Questions for further discussion	631	Offending while on bail	690
Further reading	631	Mode of trial decision	690
Websites	632	Defendants' rights	692
		Pleas and bargaining	692
		Charge bargaining	693
		Plea bargaining	693
		Evidence	695
		Disclosure	695
		Exclusion	695
		Appeals	696
		Miscarriages of justice	697
		Criminal Cases Review Commission (CCRC)	697
		Questions for further discussion	699
		Further reading	699
		Websites	699
26 Policing	635
The organisation of policing	636	28 Sentencing and non-custodial penalties	701
Understanding policing	640	Introduction	702
What do the police do?	640	Types of sentence	702
Criminal investigation	642	Discharges	703
National Intelligence Model (NIM)	643	Fines and other financial penalties	703
Investigation and forensics	643	Community punishment	703
Police powers	644	The community rehabilitation order	703
Stop and search	645	The community punishment order	704
Arrest	645	The community order	704
Detention at the police station	646	The suspended sentence of imprisonment	704
Right to silence	648	Sentencing policy	704
Models of policing	649	The Criminal Justice Act 1991	705
Community policing	649	Sentencing reform after the 1991 Act	707
Problem-oriented policing	650	The Crime (Sentences) Act 1997	708
Intelligence-led policing	650	Sentencing reform under New Labour	708
A brief history of policing	651	The Auld Review of Criminal Courts	709
Emergence of the 'new police'	651	The Halliday Review	709
The Royal Commission on the Police	651	Justice for All	710
Problems of legitimacy	652	Criminal Justice Act 2003	710
Centralisation	654	Sentencing reform under the Coalition government	711
Key themes in policing	656	Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012	711
Police culture	656	Offender Rehabilitation Act 2014	711
Zero-tolerance policing	658	Trends in non-custodial sentencing	711
Police corruption	660	Probation	715
The causes of police corruption	663	Punishment in the community	716
Police governance	664
Plural policing	669
A revolution in policing?	673
Questions for further discussion	674
Further reading	675
Websites	675
27 Criminal courts and the court process	677
Introduction	678
The Crown Prosecution Service (CPS)	678
Sufficient evidence	679
The public interest	680
Downgrading of charges	681
Discontinuance	682

Crime, Justice and Protecting the Public	718	Non-custodial penalties	782
New Labour and probation	718	Anti-social behaviour	783
The probation service and 'what works'	719	Restorative justice and referral orders	785
A national probation service	720	Youth justice after New Labour	785
The Carter Review and the emergence of NOMS	720	Young people and the 2011 riots	787
The Coalition and Transforming Rehabilitation	722	Contemporary youth justice	790
Conclusion	724	Anti-social behaviour	790
Questions for further discussion	725	Young people and imprisonment	792
Further reading	725	Young offenders, custody and vulnerability	793
Websites	726	Community alternatives	796
29 Prisons and imprisonment	729	Referral orders and restorative youth justice	797
The rise of the prison	730	Young people, crime and justice	798
Imprisonment in Britain	731	Questions for further discussion	800
Prison security	732	Further reading	800
Strangeways and Woolf	735	Websites	801
Trends in imprisonment	736	31 Restorative justice	803
Imprisonment and penal politics	738	Introduction	804
International trends	740	Conflicts as property	804
Capital punishment	744	Criminal justice and restorative justice	806
The prison system	747	Defining restorative justice	807
Types of prison	747	The objectives of restorative justice	808
Private prisons	748	Victim involvement	808
Life on the inside	749	Community involvement	809
Prisoners	749	Offender reintegration	810
Incarceration and social exclusion	752	Types of restorative justice	812
Violence in prison	753	Court-based restitutive and reparative measures	812
Prison officers	754	Victim-offender mediation (VOM)	812
Release from prison	757	Restorative conferencing	813
Governance, accountability and human rights	758	Healing and sentencing circles	816
Independent inspection	758	Healing circles	816
Grievance or complaints procedures	758	Sentencing circles	817
Human rights and imprisonment	760	Citizens' panels and community boards	817
Questions for further discussion	761	Assessing restorativeness	819
Further reading	762	The limits of restorative justice?	821
Websites	762	Restorative justice and corporate crime	822
30 Youth crime and youth justice	765	Restorative justice and violence against women	823
Youth crime	766	Assessing restorative justice	825
Persistent young offenders	768	Questions for further discussion	829
Trends in youth crime	769	Further reading	830
Ethnic minority youth and crime	771	Websites	830
Drug use and crime	773
Victimisation	775
Youth justice	777
Childhood and punishment	777
Emergence of a juvenile justice system	777
The tide turns	779
The punitive shift	779
The rise of managerialism	782
A new youth justice?	782
Youth Offending Teams (YOTs)	782
		Part 5 Critical issues in criminology	831
		32 Race, crime and criminal justice	833
		Introduction	834
		Sources of data	834

Ethnicity and victimisation	835	Questions for further discussion	899
Victimisation and risk	835	Further reading	900
Fear of crime	836	Websites	900
Racist hate crimes	836
Racist offenders	840	34 Criminal and forensic psychology	903
Community, conflict and cohesion	841	Psychology and criminology	904
Ethnicity and offending	843	History of psychology and criminology	906
Self-reported offending	844	Individual factors in crime	906
Anti-social behaviour	845	Risk and protective factors	907
Drug use	846	Individual risk factors	907
Experience of the criminal justice system	847	Family factors	908
Stop and search	848	Socio-economic, peer, school and community factors	909
Racism and stop and search	850	Risk factors and crime prevention	909
Ethnicity and policing	851	Developmental or life course criminology	911
From Scarman to Lawrence	853	Sampson and Laub	911
Cautioning, arrest and sentencing	855	Moffitt's theory of offending types	911
Ethnicity and imprisonment	857	Farrington's ICAP theory	913
Treatment in custody	858	Mental disorder and crime	914
Deaths in custody	859	The prevalence of mental disorders	914
Views of the criminal justice system	860	Mental disorder and offending	915
Minority representation in the criminal justice system	862	Understanding mental disorder and crime	915
Questions for further discussion	865	Policing and psychology	917
Further reading	866	Offender profiling	917
Websites	866	Assessing profiling	920
33 Gender, crime and justice	869	Legal and ethical issues	921
Female and male offending	870	Crime analysis	922
Reasons for offending	871	Investigative interviewing	922
Women and the criminal justice process	874	Confessions	925
Cautioning, arrest and prosecution	874	Lying and lie detection	927
The use of custody	874	Statement validity analysis	928
Women in prison	877	The courtroom and psychology	930
Mothers in prison	879	Recall/eyewitness testimony	930
Understanding women and criminal justice	881	Vulnerable witnesses	931
Women in the criminal justice system: the future	882	Children as witnesses	932
Victimisation	883	Juries	932
Fear of crime	884	Juries and evidence	933
Violence against women	884	Juries and other influences	933
Domestic violence	886	Jury composition	933
The perpetrators	886	Decision-making	934
Policing rape and domestic violence	887	Treatment of offenders and 'what works'	934
Policy changes	888	Cognitive skills programmes	936
Attrition	891	Questions for further discussion	937
Women's role in social control	893	Further reading	938
Women in the police	893	Websites	938
Women in the probation and prison services (NOMS)	895	35 Green criminology	941
Women and the legal professions	896	Introduction	942
Masculinity, men and victimisation	897	Theoretical concerns	944
Male victimisation	897	Late modern capitalism and neo-liberalism	944
Conclusion	899

Globalisation and risk	945
Thinking about environmental harm	947
Environmental harms	949
Air pollution	949
Deforestation	949
Water pollution	950
Resource depletion	950
Climate change	952
Animal abuse	953
A green victimology?	954
State, organised crime and the environment	955
Regulation and control	955
Questions for further discussion	960
Further reading	960
Websites	960
 36 Globalisation, terrorism and human rights	 963
Globalisation	964
Globalisation and criminology	965
Criminalising migration	965
Terrorism	967
What is terrorism?	968
Terrorism in Britain	968
The new international terrorism	969
Special powers for special circumstances?	970
Control orders and the PATRIOT Act	971
Terrorism and the 'new wars'	972
Private military industry	972
Privatised security in Iraq	973
State crime	974
Genocide	976
Cambodia	976
Rwanda	977
Bosnia	977
War as crime and war crimes	978
Human rights	980
Origins of human rights	980
Human rights in the twentieth century	980
Human rights in Britain	982
The Human Rights Act 1998	983
The impact of the Human Rights Act	985
Criminology and human rights	987
Dealing with human rights abuses	988
Questions for further discussion	990
Further reading	990
Websites	990

Part 6 Doing criminology	991
 37 Understanding criminological research	 993
Introduction	994
Research methods	994
Surveys	995
Questionnaire design	997
Interviews	999
Focus groups	1001
Ethnography	1003
Documentary analysis	1005
Case studies	1006
Sampling	1007
Random (or probability) sampling	1007
Stratified sampling	1007
Quota sampling	1008
Purposive sampling	1008
Convenience sampling	1008
Snowball sampling	1009
Statistics	1009
Descriptive statistics	1009
Numerical and categorical data	1010
Normal distribution	1010
Correlation	1010
Probability and significance	1011
Controversy: evaluation and experimentation	1012
Experimental methods	1012
Quasi-experimental methods	1013
Evaluation research	1013
Questions for further discussion	1016
Further reading	1016
Websites	1017
 38 Doing criminological research	 1019
Introduction	1020
Choosing a topic	1020
Doing a literature review	1023
Selecting methods	1025
Theory and research	1025
Hypothetico-deductive theory	1025
Grounded theory	1026
Negotiating access	1027
Research governance/ethics	1029
Pilot research	1030
Writing	1031
Beginning to write	1032
Write clearly	1032
Decent prose	1032
Plagiarism	1034
Time management	1035
Further reading	1036