

Contents

List of Illustrations	xiii
Acknowledgements	xvii
List of Abbreviations	xix
A Chronology of Early Mesopotamia	xxi
 Introduction	 1
 Chapter 1. Ritual as Potentially Transformative Social Action	 7
Phenomenological Approach to Ritual Acts	8
Performative Approach to Meaning in Ritual	10
Extension of the Performative Approach to Archaeology	13
 Chapter 2. Death Rituals: Their Structure and Stakes	 15
Death Rituals Structured as Rites of Passage	17
Social Positions at Stake in Death Rituals	19
Avenues for Social Action	20
Mourning	20
Disposing of the Corpse	22
Dealing with the Ghost	24
Summary and Implications	26
 Chapter 3. Recovering Ritual Acts from the Textual and
Archaeological Records	27
Methods, Sources, and Problems	27
Cultural Change through Time and the Potential Relevance of
Later Texts	29
The Cultural Unity of Southern Mesopotamia and
Archaeological Evidence	37
Prospects for Understanding the Role of Death Rituals in the
ED III Period	42
Finding Meaning and Ideology in the Evidence	42
Towards Consequences: The Dialectics of Power in the ED III
Period	44
 Chapter 4. Activities of Mourning	 45
Differentiation of Mourners	45

Contents

Activities of Mourners	48
Gala and Other Mourning Specialists	52
The Royal Tomb Complex: A Locus for the Public Phase of Mourning	58
Summary	66
Chapter 5. Activities Surrounding the Corpse	67
Separation and Preparation for Interment	70
Mortuary Practices	76
Procession	76
Mode and Location of Deposition	79
Grave Goods and Human Sacrifice: The Case of the Royal Tomb Complex	80
Grave Goods and Human Sacrifice: The Textual Evidence	93
Summary and Interpretation	97
Chapter 6. Activities Surrounding the Ghost	99
Ideas about the Afterlife	100
Early Mesopotamian Cosmology	100
The Ghost's Existence in the Afterlife	102
Contact between the Dead and the Living	104
Kispum "Remembrance Rituals"—An ED Practice?	106
Agricultural Festivals and the Dead	108
Archaeological Traces of Offerings to Ghosts?	113
Summary	116
Chapter 7. Death Rituals and the Royal Ideology	117
Background on ED III Institutions and Their Ideologies	117
Identifying the Meanings of Some Acts and Symbolic Objects	126
Abundance and Divinity	127
Military Might	138
Individuality	141
Conclusion: The Ideology That Binds These Meanings	142
Chapter 8. Conclusion: ED III Death Rituals as a Locus for
Negotiating Power Relations	147
The Advancement of Palace Ideology in the Death Rituals	148
Avenues for Future Research	155
Appendix A. de Genouillac TSA 9	157
Appendix B. VAS 14, 137	161
Appendix C. DP 75	163
Appendix D. Vessel Typology	167

Contents

Bowls	169
Low Capacity Necked Pots	171
High Capacity Pouring Vessels	174
Drinking Vessels	175
High Capacity Bottles	177
Open Vessels with Channels	178
Multipurpose Pouring Vessels	179
Multipurpose Basins	180
Vessels with Integral Stands	181
High Capacity Necked Pots	181
Small Squat Pots	183
Sieves or Strainers	184
Low Capacity Bottles	185
Low Capacity Pouring Vessels	186
Medium Capacity Bottles	187
Baking Trays	188
Stands	188
Wash Basins	189
Ladles or Dippers	189
Separators	190
Low Capacity Hanging Vessels	190
Funnel	190
Storage	191
Incomplete and Unclassified	191
Appendix E. List of Ur Graves Consulted	221
 Bibliography	 223
Index	239