Nils Anfinset: Towards a Specialised Food Production – A Look at Jebel Bishri .............................................. 1

Bonnie Nilhamn: Nomadic Life in Central and Eastern Syria, A Perspective from the Present Life on Badiyah to the Amorite Nomadism in the Bronze Age .................................................................................. 15

Kristina Josephson Hesse: Aspects of Intercultural Relations in the Old Babylonian Period, The Contacts between Mari and Hazor as a Case Study .................................................................................. 31

Sermin Anadol: Palmyra – Identity Expressed through Architecture and Art ......................................................... 59

Kenneth Lonnqvist: The Tax Law of Palmyra and the Introduction of the Roman Monetary System to Syria – A Re-evaluation ........................................................................................................ 73

Eivind Heldaas Seland: Trade Routes of Palmyra, With Special Notes on Western Routes in the Palmyrene Trade ...................................................................................................................... 89

Charlotte Stuhr Børli: Dura Europos, The Final Siege and Abandonment ............................................................. 99

Hanna-Riitta Toivanen: Fortresses and Ecclesiae on the Imperial Frontier of Byzantium, The Architectural Influence of Constantinople on Resafa-Sergiopolis and Zenobia in Syria ................................................... 111