

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
1. Introduction	1
2. The day I became a hunter	31
3. Kautitikutamat: The boy who married a caribou	39
4. Gifts from the animal spirits	53
5. The shaking tent, Mishtapeu and the shaman	63
6. The power of myths	93
7. The elders always found a way to find animals	109
8. Atshen and the shaman	129
9. The myth of Aiasheu	135
10. To travel alone is dangerous	143
11. The myth of Mehutshu	147
12. Meminiteu and Atshen	157
13. I dreamed the animals	185
14. Impact with no return	197
15. Atsheniss and the shaman	217
16. Kuekuatsheu made the world	221
17. Only priests and God keep records	239
18. Tshiushuass	245
19. Innu-White relations: From mutual respect to mistrust	253

20. Alcohol didn't solve my problems	269
21. I wanted to die	275
22. Some anthropological reflections	297
Glossary of Innu terms	317
Bibliography	319
Index	323