

Table of Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements	ix
List of Abbreviations	xi
1. The History of the Tartu School in Focus: Issues, Theories, Methods	1
The Tartu School: Toward Understanding Its History and Significance	2
Approaching Soviet Science: Knowledge and Power	8
Methodology, Data and Organization of the Book	12
2. Soviet Science and Academic Autonomy: The Structuralist Sturm und Drang	15
Stalinist Science and Its Legacy	16
Cybernetics, Structuralism and the Reform Movement in Soviet Human Sciences	17
From Moscow to Tartu: Yuri Lotman and the New Beginnings	32
3. The Making of Parallel Science: The Tartu School and the Public Sphere	39
Networks, Institutions and Parallel Science	40
The Tartu-Moscow School (1964-1974): Playing the Glass-Bead Game	46
The Tartu Discourse of Archaism	59
The Tartu School as Lotman's School (1975-1986)	64
Politics and the Academic Intelligentsia during the Perestroika (1986-1991)	74
Parallel Science and the Public Sphere in the Soviet Union	77
4. Toward a Global History of Structuralism: Roman Jakobson in the Center	84
Structuralism and Semiotics in the West: Guidelines and Frontlines	85
Poetics and Communication	90
Western and Eastern European Structuralism on Evolution and History	93
A Short History of the Reception of the Tartu School in the West	98
5. From Rules to Texts: The Idioms of Soviet Structuralism	103
The Applied Semiotics of Modeling Systems	104
Mythology and Folklore: A Mythopoetic Paradigm	111
Text, Art, Human Nature: The Dialectics of Emergence	120
Textocentrism as Cultural Politics	133
6. Thinking Culturologically: Tartu Perspectives on Culture	137
The "Cultural Turn" and Russian Culturology	138
Of Culturology: Competing Paradigms	144
Tartu Culturology and "Imperial" Semiotics	161

7. Playful Self-Fashioning: A Neo-Historicist Theory of (Russian) Modernity	166
Life into Theater: A History of Modern Personhood	166
Playing Modern is Being Modern	171
Theatricality and Modernity: The Prospects	179
Conclusion	183
Appendix A: Members and Associates of the Tartu School	188
Appendix B: Personal Interviews	191
Appendix C: The University of Tartu: A Historical Note	193
Bibliography	194
Index	217