TABLE OF CONTENTS

Karin Korn-Riedlinger
Preface ........................................................................................................ VII

Bettina Zorn
Introduction ................................................................................................ XI

General map of sites mentioned in the contributions ........................................ XIV

Part 1: Europe

Rupert Gebhard
Celtic glass .................................................................................................. 3

Sonngard Hartmann • Martin Grünewald
The late antique glass from Mayen (Germany): first results of chemical and archaeological studies ... 15

Sophie Wolf • Cordula Kessler
Early mediaeval window glass from Switzerland and a brief history of glass production in Europe in the first millennium AD ......................................................... 29

Vujadin Ivanišević • Sonja Stamenković
»Glass« workshop from Caricin Grad (Iustiniana Prima) (with a contribution by Susanne Greiff) .... 39

Jörg Drauschke • Susanne Greiff
Early Byzantine glass from Caricin Grad/Iustiniana Prima (Serbia): first results concerning the composition of raw glass chunks ......................................................... 53

Part 2: Western and Central Asia

Daniel Keller
Functional and economic aspects of Late Sasanian and Early Islamic glass from Kush, United Arab Emirates ........................................................................... 71

Pierre Cambon
The Begram glasses from Afghanistan ................................................................ 81

Thilo Rehren • Ana Osório • Abdulhamid Anarbaev
Some notes on Early Islamic glass in Eastern Uzbekistan .................................... 93
Part 3: East and Southeast Asia

Brigitte Borell
Trade and glass vessels along the Maritime Silk Road .................................................. 127

Karsten Brabänder
Southeast Asia: platform of early glass trade ................................................................. 143

Susanne Greiff
Analyses of some ancient Cambodian glass finds from Krek Village 10.8 ...................... 153

Wang Xiaomeng
On glassware from tombs of the Sui and Tang dynasties .............................................. 163

An Jiayao
Glass vessels of the Tang and the five dynasties found at Guangzhou .......................... 177

Jiang Jie
Glass: Top quality works in the Silk Road Trade ......................................................... 183

Yu Zhiyong
Some thoughts on glass finds in the Tarim Oasis from the past ten years ...................... 191

Lin Yixian
A scientific study of glass finds from the Niya Oasis ...................................................... 203

Insook Lee
Early glass in Korean tombs – cultural context ............................................................ 211

James W. Lankton • Bernard Gratuze • Gyu-Ho Kim • Laure Dussubieux • Insook Lee
Silk Road glass in ancient Korea: the contribution of chemical compositional analysis .................................................. 221

Takashi Taniichi
Sasanian and post-Sasanian plant ash glass vessels delivered to Japan ........................ 239

Addresses of the authors and editors .............................................................................. 247