

Contents

Who was Israel Goldblatt? An Introduction	VII
Family History	VII
Family Life	X
Legal Practice	XI
Early Challenges	XII
Studying the Mandate	XIII
Israel Goldblatt's Notes and this Book	XVII
I "A lonely voice from Namibia":
Israel Goldblatt and the South West Africa dispute	1
The "Study Group"	4
Goldblatt's views on the role of the United Nations	7
II Israel Goldblatt's first encounters
with Namibian nationalists	16
III "They should understand the system
under which they are living":
Israel Goldblatt's classes and lectures	41
IV "Completely distrustful of the Government":
providing legal advice and assistance	46
The case of Brendan Simbwaye	61
V "Growth of a Rumour":
settler society and the Security Police	69
VI Visiting the Old Location,
collecting information about African history	78
VII "I act on my own responsibility":
Israel Goldblatt's critics	89
VIII Editing Israel Goldblatt's Notes	94
Acknowledgements	97
Annexes	99
I Letters	100
Letters between Brendan Simbwaye
and Israel Goldblatt, 1966 - 1969	100
Simbwaye to Goldblatt, 18 July 1966	100
Goldblatt to Simbwaye, 23 July 1966	101
Goldblatt to Simbwaye, 27 March 1968	102

Simbwaye to Goldblatt, 10 June 1969	104
Letter from Clemens Kapuuo to Israel Goldblatt, 1971	106
Letter from Israel Goldblatt to a Namibian newspaper, 1978	107
Letter from Israel Goldblatt to Randolph Vigne, 1961	108
II Political Parties	110
III Biography of Chief Hosea Kutako	111
IV Interview Notes	115
On the history and demolition of the Old Location	115
Conversation with a Board Member from the Ovitoto Reserve	119
Levy Nganjone	119
Chief Kefas Muzuma from the Kaokoveld Reserve	120
V The Kasaona Case:
Petition and Letter from Chiefs Hosea Kutako and Samuel Witbooi	122
Abbreviations	125
Map and Illustrations	127
Bibliography	130
Index	133