

Contents

PART I: ALLIES AND INTERLOCUTORS

| | | |
|---|---|----|
| 1 | Iris Murdoch and Moral Philosophy | 3 |
| 2 | Understanding the Other: A Gadamerian View on Conceptual Schemes | 24 |
| 3 | Language Not Mysterious? | 39 |
| 4 | Celan and the Recovery of Language | 56 |

PART II: SOCIAL THEORY

| | | |
|---|--|-----|
| 5 | Nationalism and Modernity | 81 |
| 6 | Conditions of an Unforced Consensus on Human Rights | 105 |
| 7 | Democratic Exclusion (and Its Remedies?) | 124 |
| 8 | Religious Mobilizations | 146 |

PART III: THEMES FROM A Secular Age

| | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 9 | A Catholic Modernity? | 167 |
| 10 | Notes on the Sources of Violence: Perennial and Modern | 188 |
| 11 | The Future of the Religious Past | 214 |
| 12 | Disenchantment-Reenchantment | 287 |
| 13 | What Does Secularism Mean? | 303 |
| 14 | Die Blasse Vernunft ("Reason Alone") | 326 |
| 15 | Perils of Moralism | 347 |
| 16 | What Was the Axial Revolution? | 367 |
| | Notes | 381 |
| | Credits | 407 |
| | Index | 409 |