

Table of Contents

|   |    |
|---|----|
| Reader's Guide .....   | 7  |
| 1. What Students Know and Can Do .....                           | 11 |
| What can students do in reading? .....                                  | 12 |
| How do countries/economies perform in reading overall? .....            | 14 |
| How do girls compare to boys in reading skills? .....                   | 16 |
| What can students do in mathematics? .....                              | 18 |
| How do countries/economies perform in mathematics overall? .....        | 20 |
| How do girls compare to boys in mathematics skills? .....               | 22 |
| What can students do in science? .....                                  | 24 |
| How do countries/economies perform in science overall? .....            | 26 |
| How do girls compare to boys in science? .....                          | 28 |
| How many students are top performers? .....                             | 30 |
| Trends .....   | 32 |
| Performance in reading since 2000 .....                                 | 32 |
| Changes in reading scores since 2000 .....                              | 34 |
| Reading scores among low-performing students .....                      | 36 |
| Reading scores among high-performing students .....                     | 38 |
| Girls' and boys' reading performance since 2000 .....                   | 40 |
| Performance in mathematics since 2003 .....                             | 42 |
| Performance in science since 2006 .....                                 | 44 |
| 2. Overcoming Social Background .....                            | 47 |
| Does socio-economic background affect reading performance? .....        | 48 |
| Can disadvantaged students defy the odds against them? .....            | 50 |
| How do students from single-parent families perform in reading? .....   | 52 |
| How do students with an immigrant background perform in reading? .....  | 54 |
| Does where a student lives affect his or her reading performance? ..... | 56 |
| How equitably are school resources distributed? .....                   | 58 |
| Trends .....   | 60 |
| Socio-economic background and reading performance .....                 | 60 |
| Relative performance of students from immigrant backgrounds .....       | 62 |
| 3. Learning to Learn .....                                       | 65 |
| Are students who enjoy reading better readers? .....                    | 66 |
| What kinds of reading are associated with being a good reader? .....    | 68 |
| Do boys and girls have different reading habits? .....                  | 70 |
| What learning strategies help students perform better? .....            | 72 |
| Trends .....   | 74 |
| Reading for enjoyment .....   | 74 |
| Reading for enjoyment, by gender and background .....                   | 76 |

|  |    |
|--|----|
| 4. What Makes a School Successful? .....                        | 79 |
| Does selecting and grouping students affect reading performance? ..... | 80 |
| How do education systems and schools select and group students? .....  | 82 |
| Does school governance affect students' reading performance? .....     | 84 |
| How are schools governed in different countries? .....                 | 86 |
| How do countries/economies allocate educational resources? .....       | 88 |
| Do students perform better in more disciplined schools? .....          | 90 |
| How favourable is the learning climate in schools? .....               | 92 |
| Trends .....  | 94 |
| Teacher-student relations .....  | 94 |
| Disciplinary climate during lessons .....                              | 96 |

This book has...

StatLinks

A service that delivers Excel® files from the printed page!

Look for the StatLinks at the bottom right-hand corner of the tables or graphs in this book.
To download the matching Excel® spreadsheet, just type the link into your Internet browser, starting with the <http://dx.doi.org> prefix.

If you're reading the PDF e-book edition, and your PC is connected to the Internet, simply click on the link. You'll find StatLinks appearing in more OECD books.