Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Foreword xiii
Cees J. Hamelink

Introduction xvii
Yahya R. Kamalipour

About Iran xxiii

Map of Iran xxv

PART I: GLOBAL MEDIA DIMENSIONS

1 The 2009 Iranian Presidential Election in the Coverage of CNN and Al-Jazeera English Websites 3
Mohammed el-Nawawy

2 The Canadian Media-Framing of the 2009 Iranian Presidential Election 15
Mahmoud Eid and Aliaa Dakroury

3 The 2009 Iranian Presidential Election in the Polish Media 41
Tomasz Płudowski

4 The Portrait of Iran: How the Turkish Press Covered the 2009 Presidential Election 47
Banu Akdenizli

5 A Comparative Analysis of the Egyptian and Iranian Presidential Elections Media Coverage 63
Rasha Allam

6 The Presidential Election in Iran in 2009: Pre- and Postelection News Coverage in the German Press 71
Christine Horz

7 How the Mass Media Defined Iran's Destiny: A General Overview of the Role of Media Outlets in Iran's June 2009 Presidential Election 79
Kourosh Ziabari

8 Televised Presidential Election Debates: A Brief Comparative Analysis of the American and Iranian Debates 87
Negin Hosseini

PART II: NEW MEDIA AND SOCIAL NETWORKING DIMENSIONS

9 What's That Chirping I Hear? From the CNN Effect to the Twitter Effect 97
Nancy Snow

10 Bullets with Butterfly Wings: Tweets, Protest Networks, and the Iranian Election 105
Ali Fisher

11 Graphic Content: The Semiotics of a YouTube Uprising 119
Setareh Sabety

12 The Role and Impact of New Information Technology (NIT) Applications in Disseminating News about the Recent Iran Presidential Election and Uprisings 125
Mahboub Hashem and Abeer Najjar

13 The Role of E-diplomacy in Iranian and Xinjiang Riots 143
Li Xiguang and Wang Jing

PART III: IDEOLOGICAL-POLITICAL DIMENSIONS

14 Khameni's Group against Khomeini Followers 153
Madhav D. Nalapat

15 Silencing Iran's Twitterati: How U.S. Sanctions Muzzle Iran's Online Opposition 161
Trita Parsi, David Elliott, and Patrick Disney

16 Legal Opinion as Political Action: The Significance of Ayatollah Montazeri's Postelection Fatwa in Delegitimizing the Islamic Republic of Iran 171
Ahmad Sadri and Mahmoud Sadri

17 Televising the "Velvet Revolution": Show Trials in the Aftermath of Iran's Tenth Presidential Election 183
Ibrahim Al-Marashi

18 The Ramadan Controversy: Dilemmas in Mediating between Cultures through the Study of Dutch and Iranian Media Discourses in the Post-Iranian Uprising 191
Payal Arora and Ashok Panikkar

PART IV: CULTURAL AND COMMUNICATION DIMENSIONS

19 Faster Than a Speeding Bullet, More Powerful Than a Locomotive: Mutual Instrumentalization of Culture, Cinema, and Media by Iran and the United States 205
Hamid Naficy

20 Social Networking Media and the Revolution That Wasn't: A Realistic Assessment of the Revolutionary Situation in Iran 221
Jonathan M. Acuff

21 Are We Neda? The Iranian Women, the Election, and International Media 235
Sareh Afshar

22 Symbols, Signs, and Slogans of the Demonstrations in Iran 251
Elham Gheytanchi

23 Friend or Foe? The Challenges and Tribulations of Iranian Reporters Working for Western Media 265
Siavush Randjbar-Daemi

24 Cyber Disobedience: Weapons of Mass Media Destruction? 277
Michele Bach Malek

Recommended Sources 289

Index 293

About the Contributors 305