Contents

Dedication ..................................................................................................................... vii

Andrew D. Roberts: An Appreciation ........................................................................ ix
    John McCracken

1
Background

1. Introduction: A New Take on Late Colonial Northern Rhodesia ..................... 3
    Giacomo Macola, Jan-Bart Gewald and Marja Hinfelaar

2. Northern Rhodesia: The Post-War Background, 1945–1953 .......................... 15
    Andrew D. Roberts

2
The Polyphony of African Nationalism

3. Harry Mwaanga Nkumbula and the Formation of ZANC/UNIP:
    A Reinterpretation ................................................................................................ 27
    Giacomo Macola

4. Traditional Rulers, Nationalists and the Quest for Freedom in Northern Rhodesia in the 1950s .................................................................. 67
    Walima T. Kalusa
5. The Realization of a Catholic Social Doctrine in the Context of the Rise of Nationalism in Northern Rhodesia in the 1950s
   Marja Hinfelaar

6. Odd Man Out: Labour, Politics and Dixon Konkola
   Kenneth P. Vickery

3
The Unsettled World of Settlers

7. Proletarians in Paradise: The Historiography and Historical Sociology of White Miners on the Copperbelt
   Ian Phimister

8. Rivers of White: David Livingstone and the 1955 Commemorations in the Lost ‘Henley-upon-Thames of Central Africa’
   Joanna Lewis

9. Fears and Fantasies in Northern Rhodesia, 1950–1960
   Jan-Bart Gewald

10. Indian Political Activism in Colonial Zambia: The Case of Livingstone's Indian Traders
    Friday Mufuzi

11. Cinemas, Spices and Sport: Recollections of Hindu Life in 1950s Northern Rhodesia
    Joan M. Haig

4
Participating Observers

    Christopher M. Annear

13. Frances Bolton, Margaret Tibbetts and the US Relations with the Rhodesian Federation, 1950–1960
    Andrew J. DeRoche

About the Authors

Index