

Contents

Introduction: In-between Philosophy and Communication Studies Ramsey Eric Ramsey	vii
Part I. Conversation as Invitation to Dialogue
1. From the Loving Struggle to the Struggle to Love: A Conversation with Calvin O. Schrag Ramsey Eric Ramsey and David James Miller	3
Part II. Publics and Their Problems
2. Communicative Praxis and Collective Decision Making: From Phenomenology to the Politics of Experience to Dialogic Constitutive Practices Stanley Deetz, Amy Grim, and Alexander Lyon	55
3. Limitations of the Public Sphere: The Repressive Voice of Modernity Raymie McKerrow	73
4. Transversing Dualisms and Situating the Embodied Self in Organizational Theory and Practice Majia Holmer Nadesan	89
Part III. On Giving and Suffering
5. The Gift of Acknowledgment Michael J. Hyde	109

6.	Awaiting the Year of the Donkey Stephen Pluháček	125
7.	On Hearing the Call: From the Pain of Affliction toward Healing David James Miller and Michael J. Millington	133
Part IV. Philosophizing the In-between
8.	Feminism after Postmodernity: Some Places of Narrative in Communicative Praxis Dennis K. Mumby	153
9.	Epistemology, Tropology, Hermeneutics, and the “Essence of Language” Lenore Langsdorf	169
10.	Procreation in a Beautiful Medium: Eroticizing the Vectors of Communicative Praxis Ramsey Eric Ramsey	191
	Selected Publications by Calvin O. Schrag	201
	Contributors	207
	Index	211