

Contents

List of Contributors	v
Preface	ix
1 Greatness in depth: Why excavations matter John Schofield	1
2 Some notable British excavations before 1900 C. Stephen Briggs	12
3 Sutton Hoo – An archaeography Martin Carver	25
4 Great excavations enhanced – Birdoswald, Richborough, Whitby and the Chester amphitheatre Tony Wilmott	44
5 Aspiring to greatness: The recent excavations at Maiden Castle Niall Sharples	58
6 The urban revolution: Martin Biddle's excavations in Winchester, 1961–1971 John Collis	74
7 The rural revolution: Excavation of the Iron Age and Roman farming settlement at Owslebury, Hampshire, 1961–1972 John Collis	87
8 The Danebury decades Barry Cunliffe	104
9 South Cadbury, the Breiddin, the Rescue Archaeology Group ... and then respectability Chris Musson	121
10 The legacy of Howe, thirty years after Beverley Ballin Smith	131
11 Writing into Land : Haddenham and the Lower Ouse environs Christopher Evans	148
12 Philip Barker's Wroxeter Paul Everill and Roger White	167

13	'Erik Bloodaxe Rules OK': 'The Viking Dig' at Coppergate, York Richard Hall	181
14	The Manpower Services Commission and La Grava Evelyn Baker	194
15	Mucking: Real heritage heroism or heroic failure? Paul Barford	212
16	Growing up with Wharram Percy Bob Croft	231
17	West Heslerton: Past, present and future Dominic Powlesland	247
18	Great Expectations, great excavations: The view from the trenches Paul Everill	270
19	Great excavations, developer funding and the future David Jennings	279
20	What the Dickens happened to the IFA? Peter Hinton	289
21	Great Excavations? Geoff Wainwright	300
	Index	303