

Contents

Introduction ANNETTE TREFZER	IX
Note on the Conference	XXIII
Flags in the Dust and the Birth of a Poetics ARTHUR F. KINNEY	3
“In Conflict with Itself”: The Nobel Prize Address in Faulknerian Contexts JAMES B. CAROTHERS	20
Faulkner’s Figures: Speech, Writing, and The Marionettes SERENA HAYGOOD BLOUNT	41
“That City Foreign and Paradoxical”: William Faulkner and the Texts of New Orleans OWEN ROBINSON	56
Sanctuary’s Reversible Bodies JAMES HARDING	77
The Secret Machinery of Textuality, Or, What Is Benjy Compson Really Thinking? TAYLOR HAGOOD	92
Visualizing Light in August : Text, Author, Textuality, Authority THADIOUS M. DAVIS	107
The Impenetrable Lightness of Being: Miscegenation Imagery and the Anxiety of Whiteness in Go Down, Moses TED ATKINSON	129

CONTENTS

Intertextual Geographies of Migration and Biracial Identity: Light in August and Nella Larsen's Quicksand MARTYN BONE	144
"I Sees De Light, En I Sees De Word": Black Female Transcendence of Racial and Gendered Boundaries in The Sound and the Fury and "That Evening Sun" ETHEL YOUNG-MINOR	163
The Weird Stuff: Textual and Sexual Anomalies in Faulkner's Fiction THERESA M. TOWNER	178
Contributors	193
Index	195