

Contents

Contributors	ix
Preface	xii

PART I

Broad patterns	1
-----------------------	----------

- | | | |
|---|---|----|
| 1 | Toward a framework for analysis | 3 |
| | TAREQ Y. ISMAEL AND GLENN E. PERRY | |
| 2 | Imperialism and its manifestations in the Middle East | 39 |
| | WILLIAM W. HADDAD AND JASAMIN ROSTAM-KOLAYI | |

PART II

The Center in an age of inequality	71
---	-----------

- | | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 3 | The United States: a hegemon challenged | 73 |
| | STEPHEN ZUNES | |
| 4 | Israel: the limits of conventional and nuclear deterrence | 111 |
| | GHADA HASHEM TALHAMI | |

PART III

Potential counterbalancing forces	139
--	------------

- | | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 5 | Post-revolutionary Iran: resisting global and regional hegemony | 141 |
| | MOJTABA MAHDAVI | |
| 6 | Egypt: the continuing storm? | 174 |
| | KAREN ABOUL KHEIR | |

viii Contents

7	Turkey under the AKP: axis change or pragmatic activism? TOZUN BAHCHELI	202
8	“Identity politics”: Europe, the EU and the Arab Spring PHILIP MARFLEET AND FRAN CETTI	228
9	The United Nations and the Middle East: a guide for the perplexed RICHARD FALK	250
	Index	263