CONTENTS

Notes on contributors viii
Preface xiii
List of abbreviations xiv

Introduction: Latin love elegy
THEA S. THORSEN i

PART I  HISTORY AND CONTEXT

1 Greek elegy
RICHARD HUNTER 23

2 Latin precursors
FEDERICA BESSONE 39

PART II  THE LATIN LOVE ELEGISTS

3 Caius Cornelius Gallus: ‘the inventor of Latin love elegy’
EMMANUELLE RAYMOND 59

4 Tibullus in first place
PARSHIA LEE-STEUCUM 68

5 ‘The woman’
MATHILDE SKOIE 83

6 Propertius
ALISON KEITH 97

7 Ovid the love elegist
THEA S. THORSEN 114

v
PART III  THE ELEGIAC WORLD

8  Time, place and political background
   STEPHEN HARRISON
   133

9  The poeta-amator, nequitia and recusatio
   ALISON SHARROCK
   151

10  The puella: accept no substitutions!
    PAUL ALLEN MILLER
    166

11  Servitium amoris: the interplay of dominance, gender and poetry
    LAUREL FULKERSON
    180

12  Militia amoris: fighting in love’s army
    MEGAN O. DRINKWATER
    194

PART IV THE ENDS OF LATIN LOVE ELEGY

13  Loves and elegy
    ROY GIBSON
    209

14  Latin love elegy and other genres
    LISA PIAZZI
    224

15  Breaking the rules: elegy, matrons and mime
    JOHN F. MILLER
    239

PART V RECEPTIONS

16  Latin love elegy in Late Antiquity: Maximianus
    ROGER P.H. GREEN
    257

17  The love elegy in medieval Latin literature (pseudo-Ovidiana and Ovidian imitations)
    MAREK THUE KRETSCHMER
    271

18  Renaissance Latin love elegy
    LUKE B.T. HOUGHTON
    290

19  English elegies of the sixteenth and seventeenth century
    VICTORIA MOUL
    306
20 Translation and imitation of classical elegy in the French eighteenth century
STEFHANIE LOUBÈRE

21 Russian elegists and Latin lovers in the long eighteenth century
ANDREW KAHN

22 German elegies: from Baroque beginnings and classical culminations to twentieth-century Hollywood
THEODORE ZIOLKOWSKI

PART VI METRE

23 The Latin elegiac couplet
THEA S. THORSEN

Dateline
Works cited
Index