

CONTENTS

Introduction: Is Liberal Society Dr. Jekyll or Mr. Hyde?	I
Renewing Liberal Democracy	6
The Book	8
Notes	12
I Politics and Law	13
1. Law: Muslims in the Secular Constitutional State and the Problem of Effective Equality	17
2. State: The Ambivalence of State Policies on Islam	53
3. Parliaments, Parties, Movements: “Representation without Participation” or the Problem of Hegemony in Democracy	73
4. Political Culture: Muslims’ Loyalty to the System	95
Notes	105
2 Society	109
1. The Bourgeois Majority: From Respectable Islamophobia to System-Society Rupture	112
2. The Muslim Minority: Necessary Integration and Recognition-Worthy Segregation	175
3. Excursus—The Crisis of the Middle Class: The Social Darwinism of Cultural Difference	210
Notes	221
3 Media	225

1. Mass Media: Enlightened Islamophobia and the Social Ethics of Communication	228
2. Social Media: Virtual Crusaders of the New Public Sphere	256
Notes	270
4 The Academy and Education	273
1. Scholarship and Intellectualism: The Deliberalization of the Staged Knowledge Society	275
2. School: The Pedagogy of (Hesitant) Recognition of Islam	291
Notes	314
5 Religious Institutions	319
Church: The Reluctant Intermediary	319
Notes	331
Conclusion: The Reinvention of Liberal Society in Europe	333
Notes	362
Bibliography	363
Index	389
About the Author	409