

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Contributors	xi
Introduction: The New Evangelical Social Engagement Brian Steensland and Philip Goff	1
PART ONE: Recent Evangelical Movements and Trends
1. "FORMED": Emerging Evangelicals Navigate Two Transformations James S. Bielo	31
2. Whose Social Justice? Which Evangelicalism? Social Engagement in a Campus Ministry John Schmalzbauer	50
3. All Catholics Now? Specters of Catholicism in Evangelical Social Engagement Omri Elisha	73
4. The New Monasticism Will Samson	94
5. "We Need a Revival": Young Evangelical Women Redefine Activism in New York City Adriane Bilous	109
6. New and Old Evangelical Public Engagement: A View from the Polls John C. Green	129

PART TWO: Areas of Evangelical Social Engagement

- |   |     |
|---|-----|
| 7. Green Evangelicals   | 157 |
| Laurel Kearns   |     |
| 8. The Rise of the Diversity Expert: How American EvangelicalsSimultaneously Accentuate and Ignore Race     | 179 |
| Gerardo Marti and Michael O. Emerson  |     |
| 9. Prolifers of the Left: Progressive Evangelicals' Campaign againstAbortion                                | 200 |
| Daniel K. Williams  |     |
| 10. Global Reflex: International Evangelicals, Human Rights, andthe New Shape of American Social Engagement | 221 |
| David R. Swartz   |     |
| 11. Global Poverty and Evangelical Action   | 242 |
| Amy Reynolds and Stephen Offutt   |     |

PART THREE: Reflections on Evangelical Social Engagement

- |  |     |
|--|-----|
| 12. What's New about the New Evangelical Social Engagement?                                      | 265 |
| Joel Carpenter   |     |
| 13. Evangelicals of the 1970s and 2010s: What's the Same, What'sDifferent, and What's Urgent | 280 |
| R. Stephen Warner  |     |
| 14. We Need a New Reformation  | 292 |
| Glen Harold Stassen  |     |

- |              |     |
|--------------|-----|
| Index | 305 |
|--------------|-----|