

Contents

Ana M. Carvalho

Introduction: Towards a sociolinguistics of the border — 1

Tope Omoniyi

A borderlands' perspective of language and globalization — 9

Sebastian Muth

Linguistic landscapes on the other side of the border: signs, language and the construction of cultural identity in Transnistria — 25

Nishaant Choksi

Scripting the border: script practices and territorial imagination among Santali speakers in eastern India — 47

Gabriela Pérez Báez

Determinants of language reproduction and shift in a transnational community — 65

Barbara E. Bullock and Almeida Jacqueline Toribio

From Trujillo to the terremoto: the effect of language ideologies on the language attitudes and behaviors of the rural youth of the northern Dominican border — 83

Amado Alarcón and Josiah Heyman

From “Spanish-only” cheap labor to stratified bilingualism: language, markets and institutions on the US-Mexico border — 101

Julia de Bres

Competing language ideologies about societal multilingualism among cross-border workers in Luxembourg — 119

Bryan Meadows

Nationalist border practices: a critical account of how and why an English language classroom on the US/Mexico border reproduces nationalism — 139

Adam Schwartz

Third border talk: intersubjectivity, power negotiation and the making of race in Spanish language classrooms — 157

Deborah Cole

Mobilizing voices and evaluations across representational boundaries – equitably and adequately — 175

Book reviews

Glenn Martínez

The borders of inequality*, by Iñigo Moré — 193

Gábor Takács

A new work on Semitic loans in Greek

Semitische Lehnwörter im Altgriechischen*, by Gang Bai — 198

Small languages and small language communities 76

Abhishek Kumar Kashyap

The Bajjika language and speech community — 209