

Contents

		87	Canon, Distinction and Habitus
9	Introduction	90	The Ideology of Rock and the Relation with the Music Industry
11	About the Book	91	Romanticism versus the Culture Industry
14	Research Method	94	The Joint Action of Symbolic and Economic Values
21	1. Mainstream versus Underground
24	Analyzing the Pop Music Circuit	101	Recap 2
24	Production Circuits and Music Industry Actors	102	Interlude
28	Large-Scale versus Small-Scale Production	102	The Road to Research and the Pragmatist Turn
31	The Three Segments of the Pop Music Circuit	109	3. Digitization, Selection Pressure and Uncertainty: Context Factors in the Decision-Making Process
32	Mainstream
38	Underground
44	Alternative Mainstream
51	The Segments Model
55	Recap 1	111	Oversupply and Alternative Channels
59	2. Alternative Mainstream as a Cultural Construct	111	Harsher Selection Caused by Oversupply
62	The Aesthetics of Rock	114	The Power of the Multitude
62	Rock versus Pop	118	The Changed Role of Record Companies and Stores in the Selection Process
65	The Rock Canon and the Romantic View of Art	125	Handling Uncertainty
75	Rock and Community	129	Recap 3
81	Selections and Canonization in Pop Music as a Social Process	133	4. From Personal Taste to the 'Right' Taste: The Individual Logic
82	Canonization in Pop Music

135	The Importance of Personal Taste	222	Marginal Conditions for an Organizational Logic
135	The Indefinable Feeling	222	Practical and Logistic Criteria
145	To a (Rock) Aesthetics?	224	Artist-Bound Criteria
156	The Alternative Mainstream's Craving for Distinction	225	Content-Related Criteria
156	A Separate Segment with a Culture of its Own	228	Internal Organizational Processes
162	The Struggle over Definitions in the Alternative Mainstream	228	Group Processes
176	Defending Legitimate Taste	232	Internal Organizational Conflicts Between Logics
182	Recap 4	236	Compromises Between Individual and Organizational Logic
187	5. Economic Return and Popularity: The Organizational Logic	236	From Equilibrium to Economic Dominance
189	The Logic of Economic Return	240	Professional Attitude as a Basis
190	The Logic of Return in the Selection of Input	243	Deploying Commercial Surplus for Artistic Choices
195	The Logic of Return in the Selection of Output	245	Are Subsidies an Economic Safety Net or an Artistic Playground?
203	Coping with Uncertainty	251	Recap 5
204	Name Recognition and Previously Built Reputation	255	6. Between Trust and Distrust: The Positional Logic
209	Trends and Zeitgeist	257	A Network of Relations Based on Trust
212	Popular Musical Style Properties	258	Trust and Mutual Dependence
215	The Creation of Popularity	269	To Give and to Take
218	By Way of Conclusion	277	Positional Influence and Legitimate Pressure

277	Social Weight	354	The Relativity of the Impact of Media Coverage
279	Symbolic Weight	356	Second-Order Observation and Conformism
284	Economic Weight
290	Elements of Power and Illegitimate Pressure	360 	Recap 7
291	Imbalance of Power in the Concert Circuit	365 	8. The Selection Triangle: Conclusion
296	Internal Competitive Struggle and External Pressure
302	By Way of Conclusion	367	Paths of Selection in the Alternative Mainstream
306 	Recap 6
311 	7. The Social Process of Second-Order Selection	371	The Pressure of Legitimate Actions and the Ambiguity of Decisions
314	Dealing with Oversupply	381	Postscript
314	Opinion Makers as Symbolic Guides in Times of Oversupply	385	Respondents
320	Mutual Influencing and Conformism in the Media	391	Bibliography
329	Second-Order Selection as Risk Reduction	399	About the Author
329	The Media as Attention Machine	403	Index
338	Breaking Through in the Alternative Mainstream	413	Colophon
345	Interlude
345	Dropping Out of the Rat Race
348	The Ambivalence of Second-Order Selection
348	Dependence versus Independence		