CONTENTS

1. Designing Constitutions to Reduce Domestic Conflict
   Alan J. Kuperman

   ACCOMMODATION IS RISKY

2. Burundi: Institutionalizing Ethnicity to Bridge the Ethnic Divide
   Filip Reyntjens

   Gilbert M. Khadiagala

4. Nigeria: Devolution to Mitigate Conflict in the Niger Delta
   Eghosa E. Osaghae

5. Sudan: “Successful” Constitutional Reform Spurs Localized Violence
   Karly Kupferberg and Stefan Wolff

   INTEGRATION CAN WORK

6. Ghana: The Complements of Successful Centralization:
   Checks, Balances, and Informal Accommodation
   Justin Orlando Frosini

7. Senegal: The Limits of Hyper-Centralization
   I. William Zartman, Hillary Thomas-Lake, and Arame Tall

Constitutions and conflict management in Africa
2015
8. Zimbabwe: The Unintended Consequences of Authoritarian Institutions
Andrew Reynolds

APPLYING THE LESSONS

9. Africa's Domestic Institutions of Integration and Accommodation: A New Database
Eli Poupko

10. Rethinking Constitutional Reform for Democracy and Stability
Alan J. Kuperman

Notes

List of Contributors

Index

Acknowledgments