

Contents

Foreword	Masahiko Iburi	vii
Preface	The Organizing Committee, Tenri University and Marburg University Second Joint Research Project	ix
1	Academic and Cultural Exchanges between Tenri University and Marburg University: Retrospect and Prospect Hiroshi Sugai	1
2	Purification of the Mind in the History of Religions: On the Basis of the Works of the Second Shinbashira Shozen Nakayama Yoshitsugu Sawai	13
3	The Religious Circle of Impurity/Pollution and Purification – Presented and Reflected by a Historian of Religions Martin Kraatz	25
4	Purification and Transformation in Comparative Perspective Michael Pye	35
5	Matter Out of Place as a Window into Purification Saburo Morishita	49
6	Ignatius' Spiritual Exercises under the Aspect of Purification Gerhard Marcel Martin	57
7	Penance as a Ritual for Purification: Conceptual Transformation of Christian Sacrament in Early Modern Japan Ikuo Higashibaba	65
8	Negative Theology as 'Purification' of Language: Nicholas of Cusa on Divine Names Katsumi Shimada	73
9	Mystical Purification of the Mind: Meister Eckhart on Calmness/ Gelassenheit Christoph Elsas	83
10	A Genealogy of Discourse on Self-cultivation in Modern Japan: New Style for Narrating Buddhism and New Discourse on Religion in Modern Japan Masahiro Okada	93
11	Healing Rituals in Contemporary Japanese Esoteric Buddhism as Acts of Individual and Collective Purification Katja Triplett	107

12	Karma-yoga as a Self-purification through Service for Others: The Case of the Ramakrishna Movement Midori Horiuchi	119
13	Purification and Emotion Jörg Lauster	127
14	Purification and Salvation: Rethinking Our Way of Thinking Motokiyo Fukaya	137
15	Fasting – Reflecting on the History and the Contemporary Renewal of a Christian Exercise Ulrike Wagner-Rau	143
16	From ‘Purifying’ to ‘Having Been Purified’: The Tenrikyo Practice of Purification Shugo Yamanaka	153
	Index	163