

Contents

List of musical examples and acknowledgements	vii
Acknowledgements	xv
Preface	xvii
Abbreviations	xix
Introduction: the English Musical Renaissance	1
Piano music in England in the early nineteenth century	1
The role of the piano in British musical life	2
The piano in the concert hall	2
The piano in the home	5
The dawn of a new era	6
1 The Piano Sonatas 1870–1890	9
William Sterndale Bennett	9
George Alexander Macfarren	11
Charles Hubert Hastings Parry	14
Charles Villiers Stanford	23
Ethel Smyth	25
Edward German	29
2 The Piano Sonatas 1890–1910	33
Algernon Ashton	33
A comparison between the Royal Academy of Music and the Royal College of Music	35
John McEwen	36
William Yeates Hurlstone	39
Benjamin Dale	42
York Bowen	48
Dorothy Howell	52
Leo Livens	52
Cyril Scott	53
3 Piano Sonatas by Bax, Ireland, Baines, Bush and Britten	69
Arnold Bax	69

Contents

John Ireland	84
William Baines	91
Alan Bush	93
Benjamin Britten	96
4 Piano Sonatas by Sorabji and Bridge	101
Kaikhosru Shapurji Sorabji	101
Frank Bridge	113
5 The African–American Influence	127
African-American influences in Britain	127
Constant Lambert	129
Sir Michael Tippett	140
6 Observations Drawn from Selected Sonatas 1930–1945	159
Howard Ferguson	160
Malcolm Arnold	163
Antony Hopkins	164
Arnold Cooke	166
Lennox Berkeley	168
Conclusions	171
Appendix 1: Interview transcriptions	175
Alan Bush	175
Geoffrey Bush	178
Howard Ferguson	186
Alan Frank	192
Antony Hopkins	198
Sir Michael Tippett	206
Appendix 2: Catalogue of Piano Sonatas 1870–1945	214
Appendix 3: Discography	223
Section 1: Recordings of Piano Sonatas	223
Section 2: Other recordings referred to in the text	227
Bibliography	229
Index	243