

CONTENTS

- 1 Introduction: A Life Science in Its African Para-State, P. Wenzel Geissler

PART I: RUPTURE, CONTINUITY

- 47 CHAPTER 1. Treating to Prevent HIV: Population Trials and Experimental Societies, Vinh-Kim Nguyen
- 78 CHAPTER 2. Trialing Drugs, Creating Publics: Medical Research, Leprosy Control, and the Construction of a Public Health Sphere in Post-1945 Nigeria, John Manton

PART II: PASTS, FUTURES

- 103 CHAPTER 3. Lessons in Medical Nihilism: Virus Hunters, Neoliberalism, and the AIDS Pandemic in Cameroon, Guillaume Lachenal
- 142 CHAPTER 4. What Future Remains? Remembering an African Place of Science, P. Wenzel Geissler

PART III: STATE REMAINS

- 179 CHAPTER 5. International Health and the Proliferation of “Partnerships”: (Un)Intended Boost for State Institutions in Tanzania?, Rene Gerrets
- 207 CHAPTER 6. Working and Surviving: Government Employees on ART in Uganda, Susan Reynolds Whyte

PART IV: AFFECTIVE WHOLE

- 237 CHAPTER 7. Molecular and Municipal Politics: Research and Regulation in Dakar, Branwyn Poleykett
- 257 CHAPTER 8. The Work of the Virus: Cutting and Creating Relations in an ART Project, Lotte Meinert

PART V: STRUGGLING NATION

- 281 CHAPTER 9. The Blue Warriors: Ecology, Participation, and Public Health in Malaria Control Experiments, Uli Beisel
- 303 CHAPTER 10. The Territory of Medical Research: Experimentation in Africa's Smallest State, Ann H. Kelly
- 333 CHAPTER 11. Adventures of African Nevirapine: The Political Biography of a Magic Bullet, Didier Fassin
- 355 Contributors
- 357 Index