

Contents

---

List of Contributors	xi
Introduction: principles and positions Ian Parker	1
PART I
Varieties of psychology and critique	11
PART Ia
The mainstream	13
1 Quantitative methods: science means and ends Lisa Cosgrove, Emily E. Wheeler, and Elena Kosterina	15
2 Cognitive psychology: from the bourgeois individual to class struggle Michael Arfken	24
3 Behaviourisms: radical behaviourism and critical inquiry Maria R. Ruiz	33
4 Emotion: being moved beyond the mainstream Paul Stenner	43
5 Biological and evolutionary psychologies: the limits of critical psychology John Cromby	52
6 Personality: technology, commodity and pathology China Mills	61
7 Developmental psychology: the turn to deconstruction Erica Burman	70
8 Social psychology: a commentary on organizational research Parisa Dashtipour	79

v

Contents

9	Abnormal psychology: a psychology of disorders Susana Seidmann and Jorgelina Di Iorio	88
10	Forensic psychology: clinical and critical Sam Warner	96
PART Ib
	Radical attempts to question the mainstream	105
11	Qualitative methods: critical practices and prospects from a diverse field Brendan Gough	107
12	Theoretical psychology: a critical-philosophical outline of core issues Thomas Teo	117
13	Humanistic psychology: a critical counter culture Keith Tudor	127
14	Political psychology: critical approaches to power Maritza Montero	137
15	Community psychology: subjectivity, power, collectivity David Fryer and Rachael Fox	145
16	Organizational psychology and social issues: the place of the place Mary Jane Paris Spink and Peter Kevin Spink	155
17	Counselling psychology: critical achievements, possibilities, and limitations Richard House and Colin Feltham	164
18	Health psychology: towards critical psychologies for well-being and social justice Yasuhiro Igarashi	173
19	Black psychology: resistance, reclamation, and redefinition Garth Stevens	182
20	Psychology of women: questions of politics and practice Rose Capdevila and Lisa Lazard	191
21	From 'lesbian and gay psychology' to a critical psychology of sexualities Pam Alldred and Nick Fox	200

PART Ic
Adjacent parts of psy-complex	211
22 Alienists and alienation: critical psychiatry in search of itself Janice Haaken	213
23 Psychotherapists: agents of change or maintenance men? Ole Jacob Madsen	222
24 Education and psychology: change at last? Tom Billington and Tony Williams	231
25 Social work: oppression and resistance Suryia Nayak	240
26 Self-help: and pop psychology Jan De Vos	250
PART II
Varieties of critical psychology	259
27 Activity theory: theory and practice Manolis Dafermos	261
28 Marxist psychology and dialectical method Mohamed Elhammoumi	271
29 Kritische Psychologie: psychology from the standpoint of the subject Johanna Motzkau and Ernst Schraube	280
30 Does psychoanalysis have anything to say to critical psychology? Kareen Ror Malone with Emaline Friedman	290
31 Deconstruction: the foundations of critical psychology Andrew Clark and Alexa Hepburn	297
32 Deleuzian perspectives: schizoanalysis and the politics of desire Hans Skott-Myhre	306
33 Discursive psychology: key tenets, some splits, and two examples Margaret Wetherell	315

PART III

Standpoints and perspectives on psychology and critical psychology 325

PART IIIa

Perspectives 327

- 34 Feminist psychology: researches, interventions, challenges 329
Amana Mattos
- 35 Queer theory: disarticulating critical psychology 339
Miguel Roselló Peñaloza and Teresa Cabruja Ubach
- 36 Liberation psychology: another kind of critical psychology 348
Mark Burton and Luis H. Gómez Ordóñez
- 37 Indigenous psychologies and critical-emancipatory psychology 356
Narcisa Paredes-Canilao, Ma. Ana Babaran-Diaz, Ma. Nancy B. Florendo, and Tala Salinas-Ramos with S. Lily Mendoza
- 38 Postcolonial theory: towards a worlding of critical psychology 366
Desmond Painter
- 39 From critical disability studies to critical global disability studies 376
Shaun Grech
- 40 A politically informed immanent spirituality for critical psychology 386
Kathleen S. G. Skott-Myhre

PART IIIb

Places 395

- 41 Critical psychology in Africa: the impossible task 397
Ingrid Palmary and Brendon Barnes
- 42 Critical psychology and the American continent: from colonization and domination to liberation and emancipation 406
Raquel S.L. Guzzo
- 43 Critical psychology in the Arab world: insights from critical community psychology in the Palestinian colonial context 415
Ibrahim Makkawi
- 44 'Critical psychology in Asia': four fundamental concepts 425
Anup Dhar

45	European critical psychological trends: an open road to psychological recidivism Ángel J. Gordo López and Roberto Rodríguez López	434
46	South Pacific: tensions of space in our place Leigh Coombes and Mandy Morgan	444
	Index	455